Campus improvements

at ONU beautify the University as Ohio Northern received a facelift in some areas and additions to others. For starters, street repairs were made, new walks were built, and the circular flower beds in front of Lima and Founders Hall were bricked over. In addition, a comprehensive renovation of McIntosh has begun. However, the most noticeable changes on campus were right out front with the addition of an automatic sprinkler system, and the new identification plaza. The new plaza, located on the front lawn facing Main Street, bears the name and seal of the University and is there to welcome all to ONU.

1. New water lines for a sprinkler system are being laid on the front lawn of the University.
2. Snow laden branches of University pines point the way to English Chapel.
3. A new University identification plaza proudly stands.

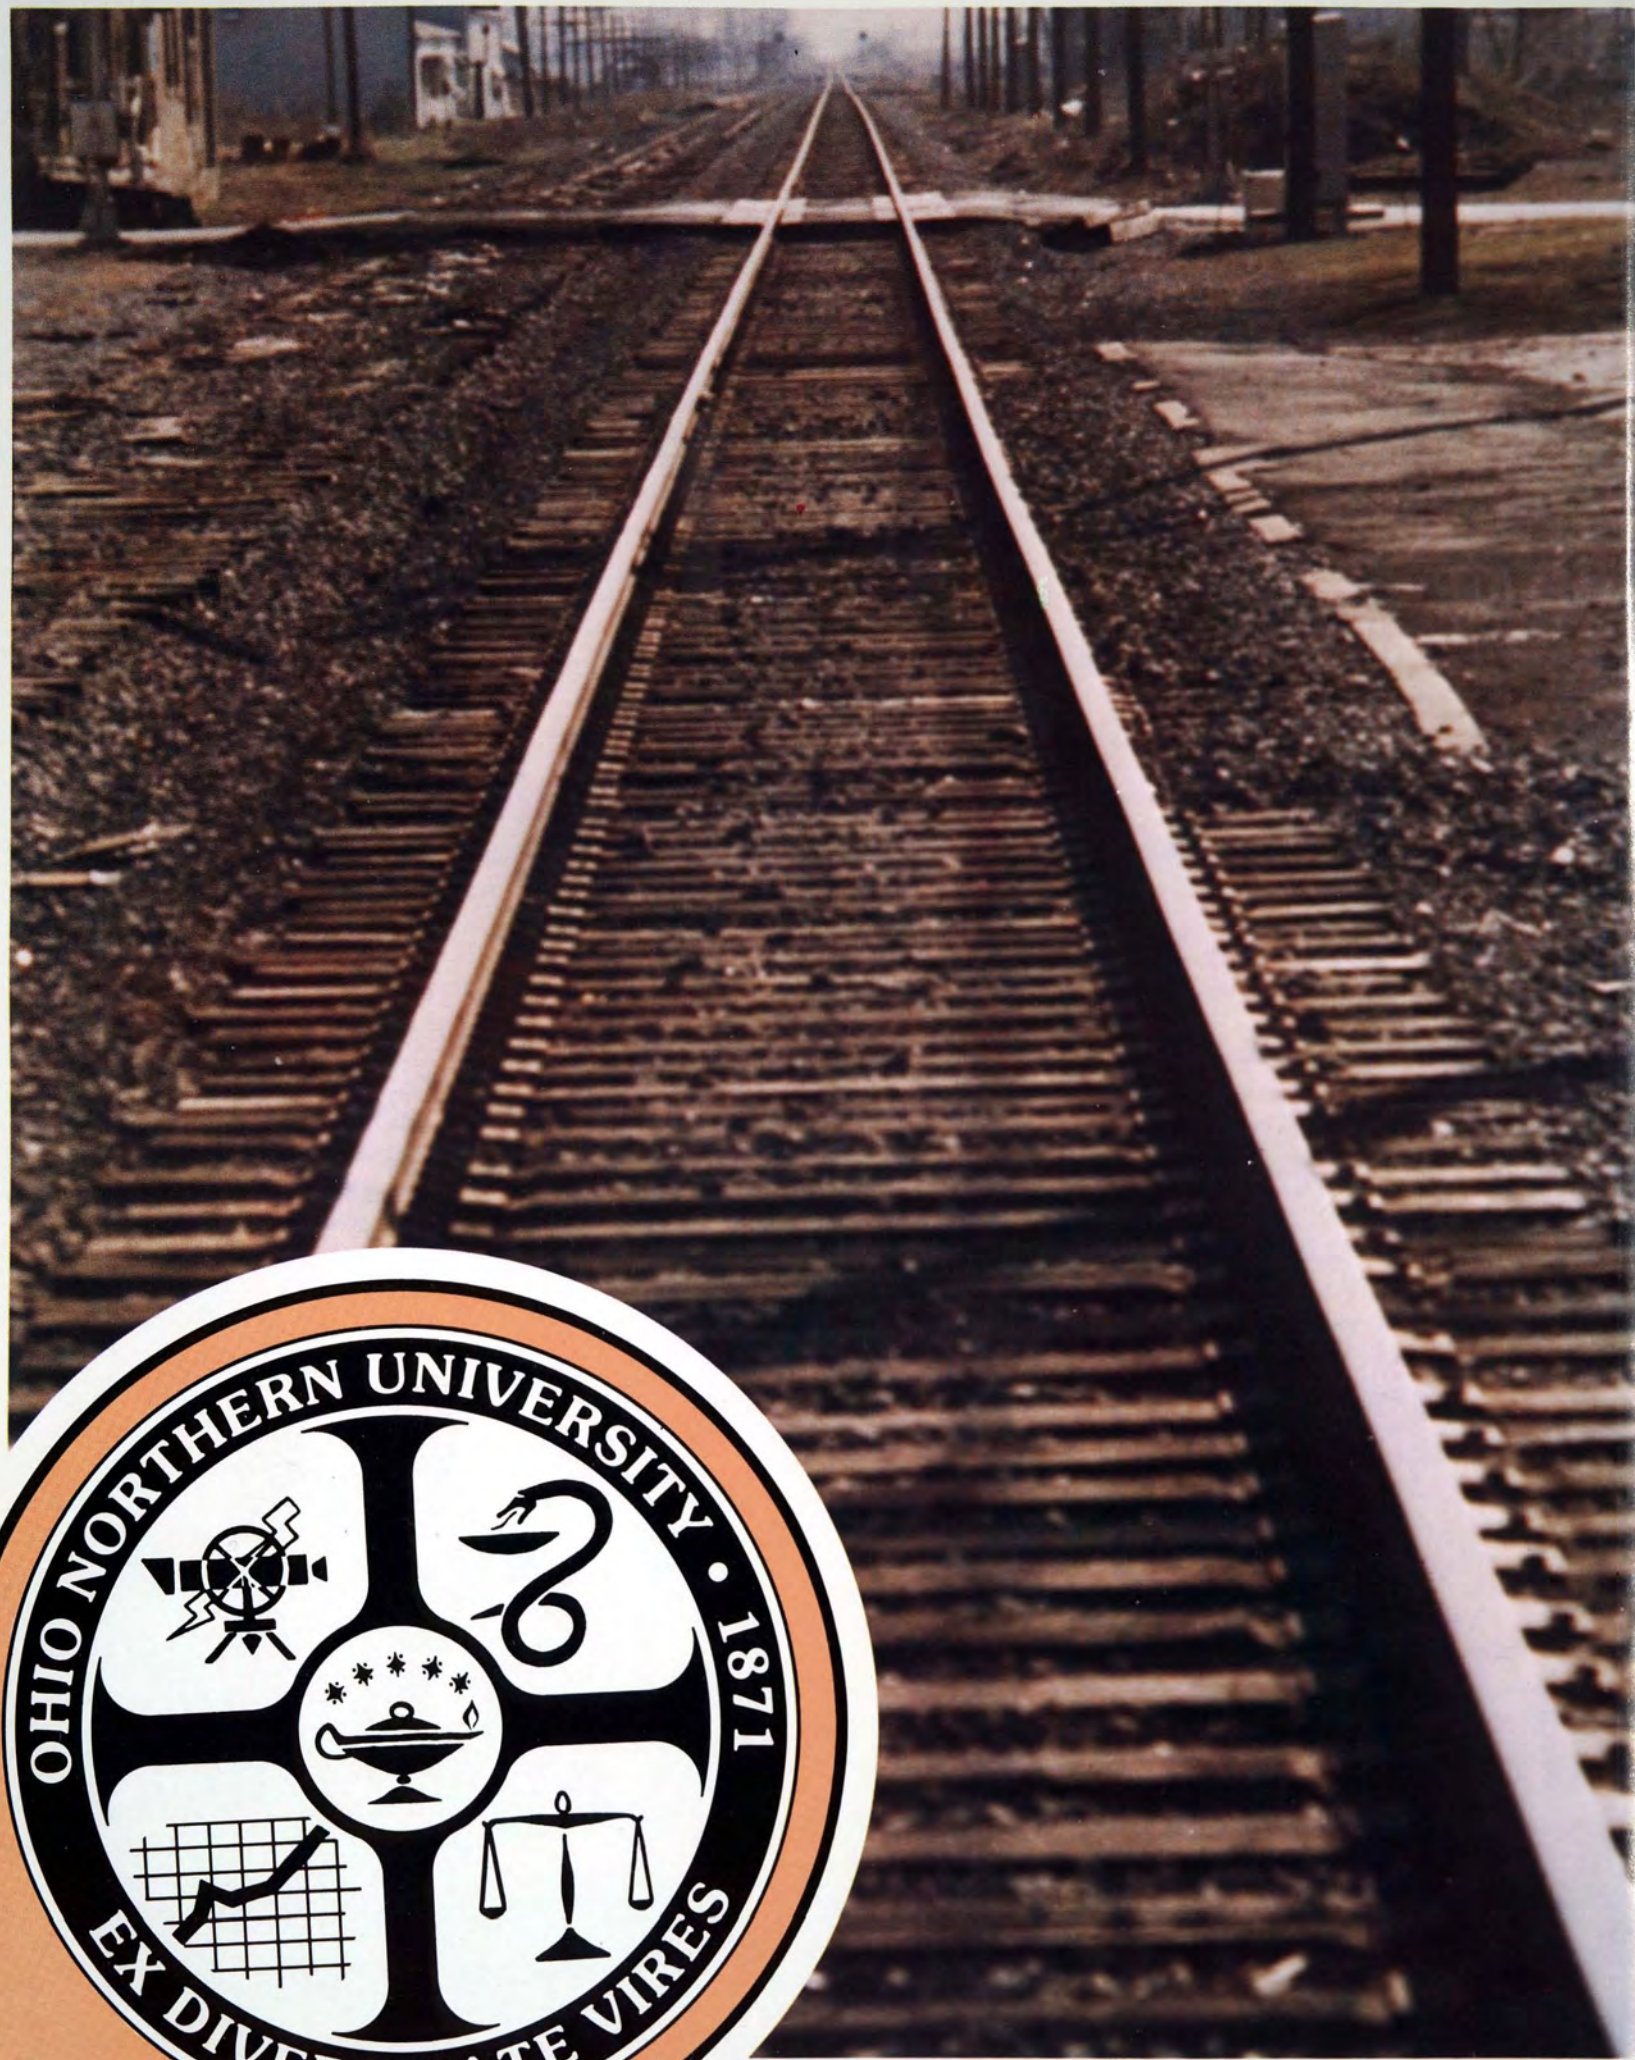

OF ONU

Ada, a one track town? Perhaps, considering the town has lost a set of tracks, but not when taking into account the town and its people. Construction brought new gas pumps to Lawsons, ONU students made possible the Park Hall Fight Night in which proceeds went to an Ada youth, and Ada residents took part in a new Block Watch program. In addition, an Ada Refugee Resettlement Team was established to examine the possibility of sponsoring a refugee family, making Ada a home away from home, not only for the ONU student, but for all interested in sharing the fellowship Ada has to offer.

1. A single set of tracks divides the town and guides numerous locomotives into and out of Ada.
2. The Station House provides the college crowd with good food, good times, and even a good game of darts.
3. The Northern Freeze, with its convenient location to campus, is an ideal place for that cup of coffee between classes or as a popular place to meet, eat, and study in the evenings.
4. Expansion at Lawsons brought to Ada new gas pumps and a new look inside the store.

OF ADA

Students at ONU are tops; top of their class, top athletes, and top student leaders. With enrollment at 2,545, ONU's student body is composed of outstanding individuals. Not only is the academic profile for entering students at ONU one of the highest in the state, but Northern students are involved in student government, athletics, and many more on and off campus activities. The ONU student body 'is also a diverse group, made up of 500 law students, 2,000 undergraduates, and 150 minority and international students mostly from the Middle East, Africa, and the Orient.

1. Law students and undergraduates share the campus of Ohio Northern, making it a diverse group of students.

2. College isn't all studying and no play, as students always find time to horse around and have some fun.

3. Clark Hall chefs serve up good eats to Jackie Seasily and Julie Brickner during Clark Hall's Spring Fling Picnic.

4. Atop Clark Hall's second floor landing, Kelly Davis spots some friends below.

World happenings were the headlines

in the latter part of '83 and in '84 as America sent its first woman astronaut into space, saw U.S. Marines slain in Beirut, and watched as activity in Grenada took place. In addition, the United States prepared for the 1984 Presidential Race with Gary Hart, the Reverend Jesse Jackson, and Walter Mondale vying for the Democratic nomination to run against President Ronald Reagan. World news kept the nation alert and waiting.

1. The Soviet Union mourned at the loss of their leader Yuri Andropov.
2. Astronaut Sally Ride became the first American woman in space and hopes that someday a woman astronaut will become as common as bread and butter.
3. Digging out from the rubble, U.S. Marines look for survivors after their base in Beirut was attacked by a suicide mission.
4. The Australia II, became the first challenger ever to take the America's Cup from U.S. sailors.
5. President Ronald Reagan prepares for an uphill battle for the Presidential Race in '84.
6. The Reverend Jesse Jackson steals the show as he rescues a soldier from capture as well as running for the Democratic Presidential ticket.
7. American soldiers smile with their victory and recovery of American students in Grenada.

OF THE WORLD

Seasonally speaking,

life at ONU changes with the weather. Autumn brings the migration of students to campus, fall football games, Homecoming, and quiet walks atop golden carpets. Dead of winter in Ada seems to last forever, but students adjust with a change in study habits, longer afternoon naps resembling hibernation, or by participating in ONU's very own winter sports event — Polar Bowl. However, when spring rolls around, the campus comes alive. Frisbees take flight, swimsuits are dug from the bottom of drawers, and sun worshipers start working on those Ada tans. All in time to prepare for summer.

1. With a flamboyant dash of colors, autumn leaves and crimson shrubbery bring to mind warm thoughts of spring.
2. Autumn droppings pave the way for campus travelers and provide the recently closed Union Street with a special pavement of its own.
3. Footprints in the snow lead the way past the Pettit College of Law and onto the main campus.

OF SEASONS

“What’s there to do at ONU?”

cries the newcomer to campus. Plenty, if one wants to get involved in the wide range and whirl of activity a university like Ohio Northern has to offer. The choices are as diverse as the student body and include such things as intramural or varsity athletics, student run publications such as the Polaris and the Northern Review, student government, musical groups, deputation teams, interest clubs and organizations, and Greek life. There’s something for everyone to match their talents and interests with at QNU.

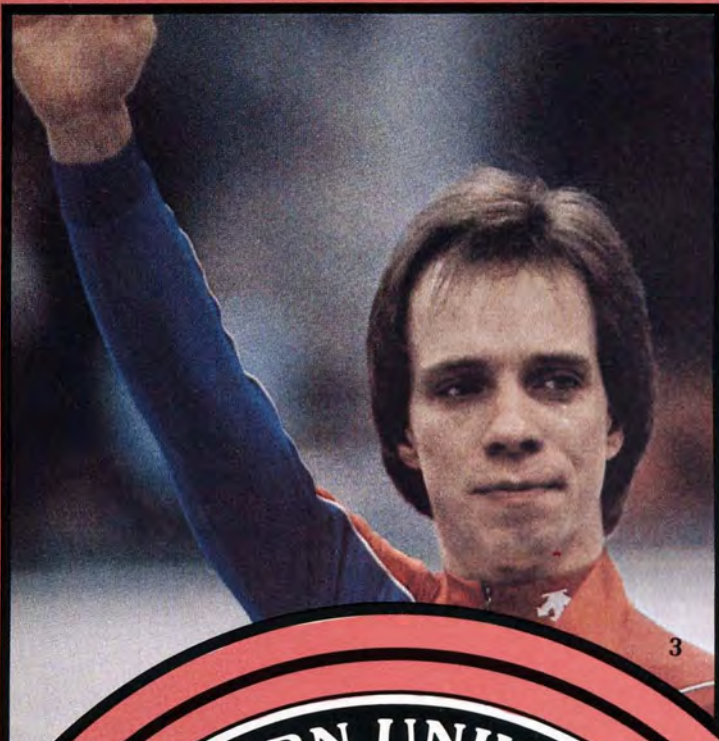

1. With letters ablaze, Greeks at ONU join together during Greek Week to watch, support, and participate in Sig Olympic activities.
2. Local ghouls and goblins find their way into the dorms as Resident Assistant Toni Medaglia leads the group trick-or-treating through Clark Hall.
3. Zeta participant, Mimi Huguenin, takes part in the Coke Chug during the Sig Olympics.
4. Flag corp members share the excitement and spirit of Saturday afternoon football games with the crowd on and off the field.

Hot items in '83-'84

kept the press and the public up on the latest as we watched to see what influence they would have on our lives. Influence us they did, as movie goers enjoyed the sound track of movies such as "Flashdance" and "Footloose." the novel of the year became Orwell's 1984, and the nation rocked to the music of Michael Jackson's #1 selling album, "Thriller." Fashion trends erupted from the influence of "Flashdance" and Jackson, while the t.v. show of the year became the drama of "The Day After."

1. "The Day After" ranked as the number one television show in '83 as millions of Americans tuned in to watch a graphic vision of a nuclear war take place.
2. Movie goers watched in "Flashdance" as Jennifer Beals made the ripped sweatshirt a fashion trend.
3. Local hero Scott Hamilton sheds a tear after receiving the Olympic gold in the '84 winter olympics for his winning performance in figure skating.
4. Superstar, Michael Jackson, set fashion trends and rocked the nation with the best selling album of all time, "Thriller."
5. Britain rocks America once again as Boy George of Culture Club sports a much talked about and different look

OF WHAT'S HOT

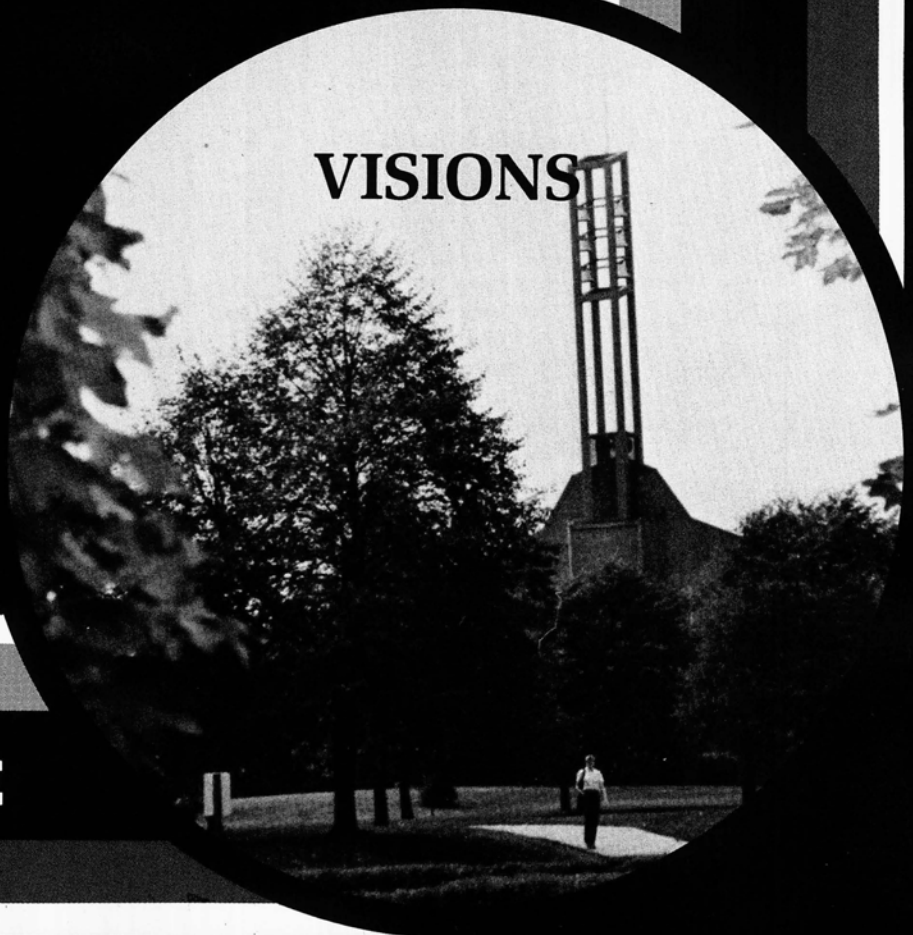

VISIONS

OF STUDENT LIFE

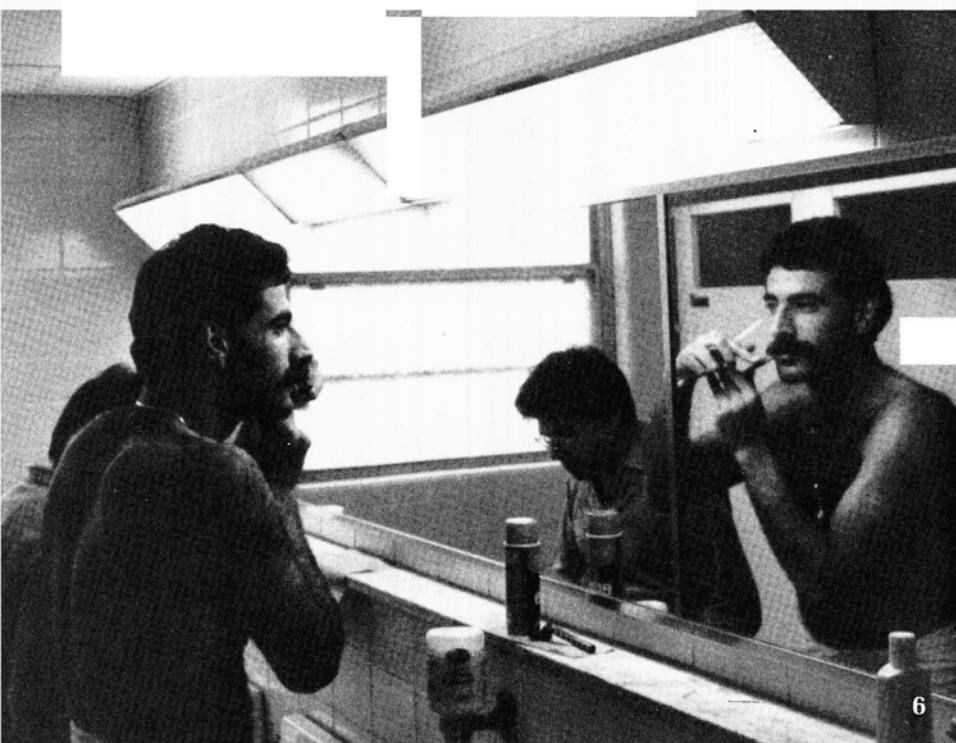

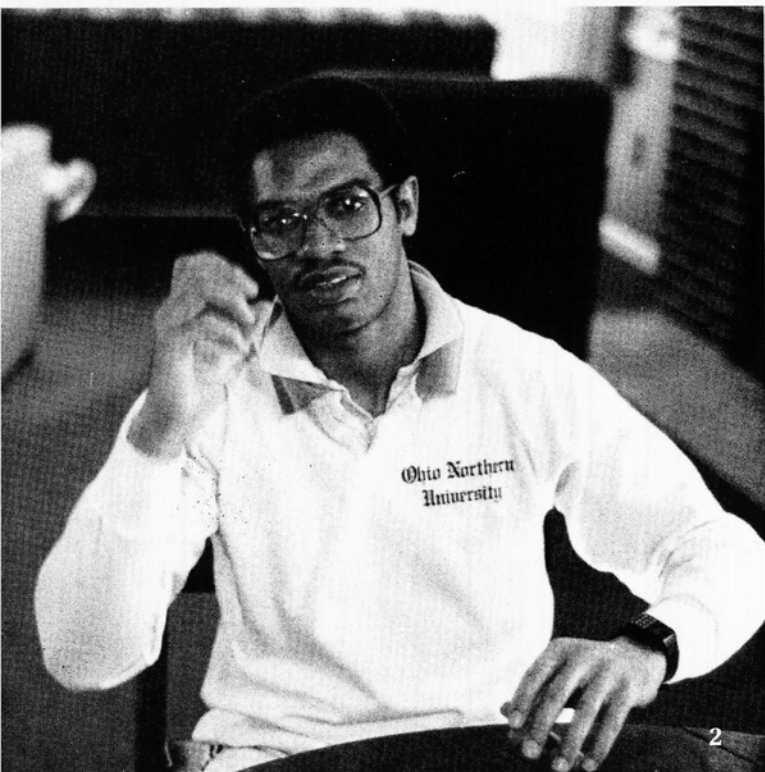

Life and living at ONU offered students a place to eat and sleep, but did it really provide a home away from home? That depended on the student and the choices he or she made. Freshmen and newcomers to campus most likely found themselves in one of many dorms. The fellowship of friends next door and down the hall, plus the ready access to laundry facilities, lounges, private study rooms, and campus made the dorms a convenient place to live. Upperclass Greeks were able to choose whether to live in a fraternity or sorority house. Often demand for such housing was on a competitive and seniority basis, but it did provide an alternative and additional freedom from life in the residence halls. Off-campus housing in local apartments was a choice for seniors and law students. No matter the living arrangement, though, students made their space a home away from home, with the flair that only a student could give to an empty dorm room or new apartment.

“So This Is My New Home?”

1. A game of backgammon is enjoyed by Rob Buzza and his opponent.
2. Talking with friends in the evening and discussing the day's events is an everyday activity for Leo Evans.
3. Dorm lounges provide Brent Smith and others with a comfortable place to meet with friends and watch t.v.
4. Laundry facilities exist in every dorm and provide students with handy access for those weekly chores when away from home.
5. Consisting of a place to study, a place to sleep, and a roommate, dorm life can be a pleasant experience.
6. Taking care of needs and preparing for the morning is just a start for the day ahead.

"You Mean I Have To Study Too?"

Being a student means a lot of things, but it primarily means that one spends a great deal of time studying. From accounting to zoology, there are books to be read, papers to write, speeches to give, and projects to complete. The questions of Why Study, How to Study, When to Study, and Where to Study confronts every scholar to be, and every student answers the above questions in his own way. With the question of Why Study? being the most prominent, one soon learns that if one chooses not to study, then the hopes of becoming a successful scholar quickly disappear. So, in order to be successful, we conclude that studying is worth our time. The questions that follow, then, are When, Where, and How. First of all, most any time's a good time for studying, whether it be before class, during class, after class, or the night before the big test. Where to Study offers a wide range of choices; dorm, lounge, library, chapel, local coffee shop, or in class buildings. And we answer the final question of How to Study, with friends, without friends, with food, without food, while wide awake, or through the magical forces of osmosis. Yes, students have to study too.

1. Preparing written reports keeps Suzy Hudson busy during evening hours in Clark Hall.

2. Studying in one's dorm room with all the comforts at hand is one way to beat the evening library rush for seating.

3. Working front desk and studying at the same time is a talent exhibited by Mike Kaufmann and many other students throughout the day.

4. Class projects may not include reading, studying, and outlining, but it does include a lot of time consuming work and creative talent.

5. Relaxing in a bean bag chair is one way to make studying a bit more comfortable and enjoyable.

6. A quick glance before the test proves helpful and a stand-by test strategy for many students.

7. Studying in McIntosh, between classes, and before and after meals is a common activity for on-campus students.

8. Socializing and studying in the Clark Hall lounge is junior Toni Medaglia.

"If I live here, sleep here, and study here, it looks as if I'm going to have to eat here too." The students lament does not go unheard, though, as ONU provides for every need. On-campus residents are able to choose from two meal plans for cafeteria service supplied by Saga. Not only does Saga provide students with three fine meals a day and Sunday afternoon buffets, but it also features special evening meals in which a theme may be carried out, home cooked meals are prepared using "Mom's" recipes, dinners are fixed in conjunction with events such as International Week and Black Awareness Week, and offerings such as the ever popular "Steak Night" appear regularly. Off-campus residents may also choose a Saga meal plan due to the fine food and convenience the university cafeteria has to offer. However, when evening hunger pangs strike, alternatives do exist. Ada offers a number of drinking and eating establishments, not to mention more than a half dozen places to call for pizza. Kitchenettes exist in every residence hall, and area grocery stores provide ONU chefs with what they need in order to prepare their own meals and snacks. Whatever the case, the ONU student is a well fed student.

"Who Wants To Order A Pizza?"

1. Students Vicki Steel, Tracy Sierra, and Jon Cross help themselves to Saga's Sunday afternoon buffet.

2. Eating at Saga is an everyday activity for on-campus residents, and for some off-campus students who choose the meal plan and convenience Saga has to offer.

3. Saga server, Pat, prepares the entrees for the 4:30 evening rush.

4. Cooking in the dorm can be a messy business, however kitchenettes located in all of the residence halls provide students with a place to prepare evening snacks and special meals.

5. Munching on popcorn and soda pop during free time in the evening are Marla Mills and Curt Ross.

6. Preparing and waiting for the steaks, burgers, and frankfurters at the Clark Hall picnic are Steve Hreha and Mary Beth Lowdermilk.

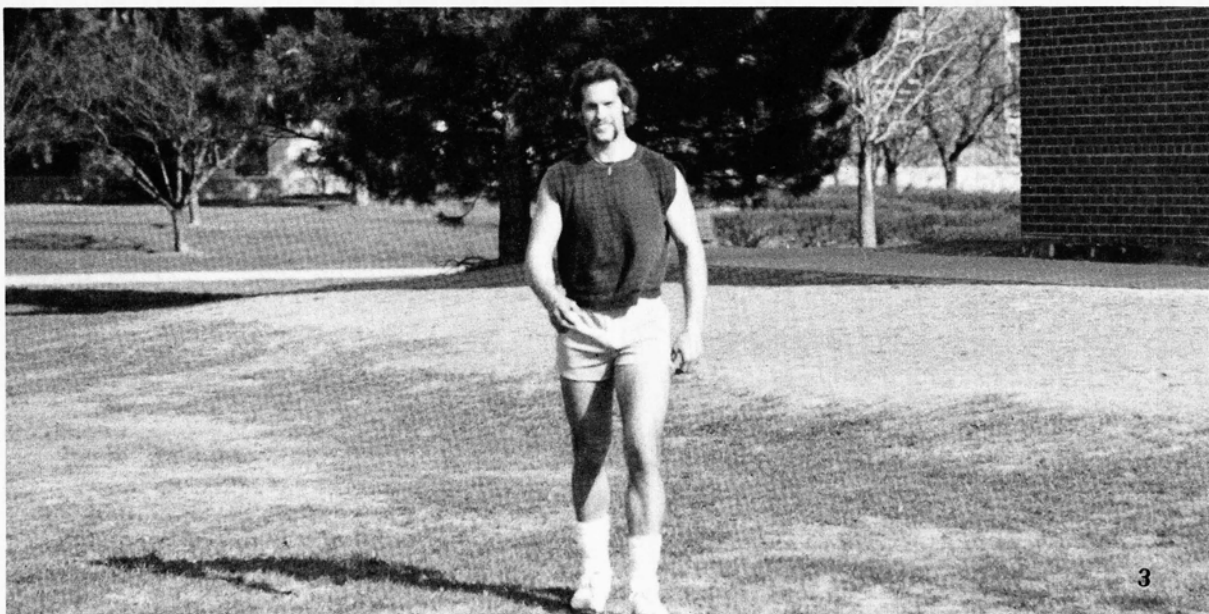

Ohio Northern may not be a center of fashion, but ONU students do have their very own look. During the day, jeans, t-shirts, and dressier clothes persist for class wear. After hours brings an entirely different look, with sweats and active wear being the most prominent. Even so, when Halloween, Greek Sing, or those weekend theme parties roll around, anything can be expected and seen around and about Northern.

1. Being physically active and looking the part makes sweat pants, shirts, and active wear a common sight around campus.
2. Phi Kaps sport Greek letter jackets while walking across campus to class.
3. Casual and active wear are perfect for strolls across campus and Kevin John.
4. Showing off her country bumpkin look is Alpha Xi Julie Hardin, ready for Greek Sing.
5. Sun worshipers don swim wear in an attempt to gain that early summer tan.
6. Kappa Psi brothers Jim Rosselit, Todd Zevchik, Chuck Ceccarelli, Mike Grothouse, John Petracci, Jeff Bednarcik, Steve Summers, Greg Sullivan, Mike Aruta, Scott Mincher, Theo Karavokyros, and Pat Shea, dress it up for their Greek Sing performance.

"They've Got That ONU Look"

Past- Times At ONU

College life in Ada sometimes found students with free time on their hands, so, for all of the spare moments away from studying, ONU students had to find some form of entertainment. To save themselves from boredom, students joined clubs, created their own games, and occasionally planned time out for a scheduled event. Anyone tuned to 640 AM found that WONU, Northern's very own radio station, met practically all of their listening needs. With a mixture of old and new music, WONU offered students special sports features, and programs such as Vintage Vinyl, and the Hour of Higher Power. For students who would rather perform than listen, Open Mic Nights were held in White Bear Inn, in which local Northern talent took the stage to entertain all. Campus sponsored events also provided the students with a wide range of activity to choose from. A spring concert brought entertainment to the entire campus with the sounds of a local rock band, and the Christian Concert Committee brought Michael Card, the 1982 Christian songwriter of the year, to ONU. There was certainly a lot to choose from for the student with a few free moments to spare.

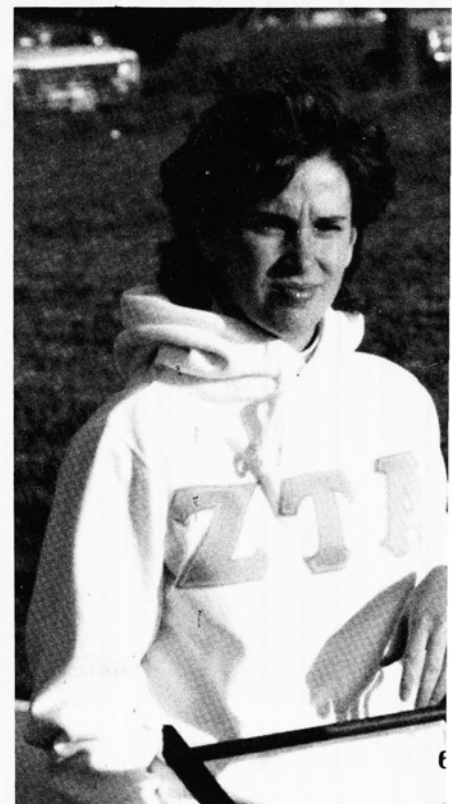

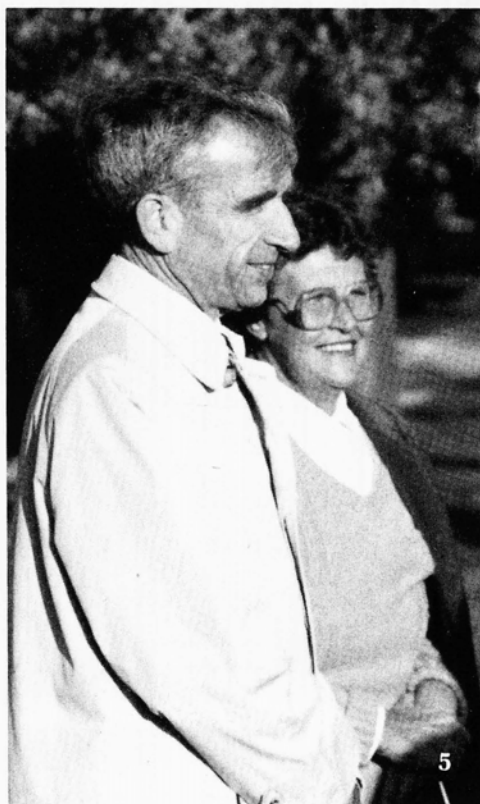

1. Clark Hall resident, Dave La Riccia, finds time to shoot ping-pong balls through the halls.
2. Musician, singer, and songwriter, Michael Card performs at the Chapel.
3. The University radio station, WONU, provides students with up-to-date information and music.
4. Enjoying a game of tennis while weather still permits is Todd Zevchik.
5. Moonlight Drive performs in an outdoor concert during Spring Week festivities.
6. Intramural and interfraternity softball and athletic events keep many students busy throughout the year.

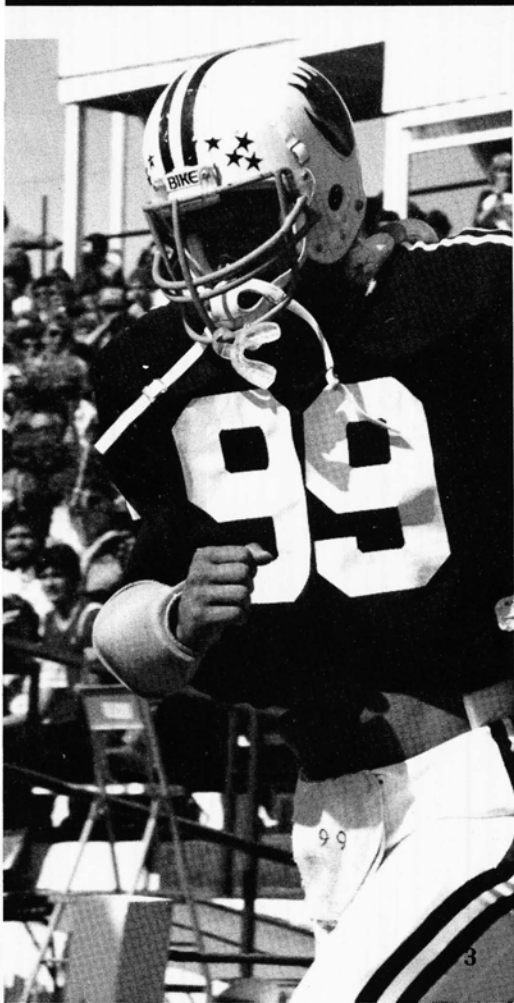

Homecoming certainly was a "Celebration in '83," as it was full of good times from start to finish. Festivities began on Monday evening with an Ice Cream Social and the sounds of Added Attraction. On Wednesday a new event was added to the Homecoming celebration; Homecoming Spirit Night in which Queen and King candidates presented skits in the White Bear. Banner Day was held on Thursday, while Friday evening activities included the annual pushmobile races, torchlight parade, and announcement of Homecoming Court. Alpha Sigma Phi and Alpha Omicron Pi took first place in the pushmobile races, while Saturday's Homecoming Parade brought top honors to the winning float of Phi Mu Delta. The ONU Polar Bears continued the winning streak as they defeated the Marietta Pioneers 60-0 in the Homecoming game. Halftime brought with it the announcement and crowning of Homecoming Queen Shari Birt, and King, Sam DiGiacomo. Court attendants were Lynn McConnell, Dana Gross, Linda Ream, Bryan Moore, Pam Lewis, and Jim Black. A reception following the game, and a talent show Saturday evening, brought Homecoming '83 to a successful close.

1. Plunging forward in the annual pushmobile races are Alpha Xi's Kim Parsons and Donna Milligan.
2. Crowned Homecoming King and Queen were Sam DiGiacomo and Shari Birt.
3. Racing onto the field for the afternoon Homecoming game against Marietta, is Kevin John.
4. Presenting their skits to a crowd at the White Bear Inn are Homecoming King and Queen candidates Steve Hreha and Lynn McConnell.
5. Frequent spectator at the Homecoming events is President of the university, Debow Freed.
6. Pausing before the start of the pushmobile races is Zeta, Lori Williams.
7. At the game, Lynn McConnell cheers the Bears on to a 60-0 victory.
8. The ONU Marching Band performs at halftime.

Homecoming Is A “Celebration In '83”

CAB Brings Activities To Campus

The Campus Activities Board, better known as CAB, saw to it that there was never a free, dull moment at Northern. The student run organizations, designed to promote programs and activities on campus, brought to ONU such events as Homecoming, Spring Week, Open Mic Nights, Sunday night movies, and had a hand in practically everything else that took place throughout the year. Early in January a Bingo Night was held in which students competed for prizes, and later a Monte Carlo Night was sponsored. An Open Mic Night during Little Sibs Weekend brought ONU talent to the stage for a 2½ hour show, while Little Sibs Weekend also included a children's theatre production of Stomach-Ache, a dance, an Ice Cream Social, and two contests. Another event which took place was ONU's 4th annual Polar Bowl with 8 teams made up of 4 men and 4 women competing for the football-like winter championship. With Spring Week came the Not Necessarily A Concert, concert. The all day outdoor event featured 6 local bands, two of which were made up of ONU students. Thanks to CAB and other organizations on campus, students stayed busy throughout the year.

1. Polar Bowl participants take out across the snowy field as the quarterback prepares to release the ball.
2. CAB sponsored a Christmas Gift Wrapping booth throughout the yuletide season.
3. Little Sibs Weekend brought Cheri McCain and her guest together for a musical interlude.
4. Taking in the money during Casino Night is Becky Hanigosky.
5. Faculty wives sponsored their annual Christmas Arts Fair and Festival, held in McIntosh.
6. Little Sibs Weekend brought the old and young alike together for a movie.
7. Overseeing the games is Greg Gearhart during Casino Night.

Campus Chest Pulls In $1400 For Charity

1. Getting creamed in the KY's Pie Throwing booth is part of the fun for Judy Rzaca.
2. Serving up edible delights in the Kappa Phi booth is Amy Lyle, Diane Cotsamire, and Beth Grafflin.
3. Having fun at the Sig Ep Body Painting booth is Kelly Kennedy.
4. Campus Chest Queen candidates, Cindy Harris of Alpha Xi Delta, Katie Pietrykowski of Alpha Omicron Pi, and Molly Pitcock of Zeta Tau Alpha sit and relax during the carnival activities.
5. The Sigma Pi Egg Drop booth was a real attention getter at the carnival.

Campus Chest, ONU's mid-winter carnival, pulled in a total of $1400 as students contributed to and enjoyed the variety of booths and games featured at this year's carnival. Campus organizations, fraternities, and sororities all joined in to entertain one another and raise money for the American Cancer Society, Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home, Starr Commonwealth for Boys, United Cerebral Palsy, March of Dimes, and the McIntosh Emergency Fund. Featured at the carnival were the Sigma Pi egg drop and the Alpha Omicron Pi jail, winning the honors for best contest and best booth respectively. Also enjoyed by many were the KY's pie throwing booth, and the Sig Ep's body painting booth. Elected Campus Chest King and Queen were PMD Scott Samhric and AOPi Katie Pietrykowski. Alpha Omicron Pi, Karen Suchanek, won the best legs contest. Ending the carnival was the annual Greek party aucion, with coach Wally Hood officiating.

Novel Weeks Add A Spice To Life

1. A dance troupe performs in McIntosh during International Week.
2. During Women's Week Chapel services, Joy Maddox inducts new Mortar Board members; Kerri Wurgler, Tina Rodgers, Cecelia Peters, Jill Painter, Heidi Mueller, Toni Medaglia, Annemarie Long, Jenny Heydinger, and Beth Haudenschild.
3. Dr. Dan Kiley, author of "The Peter Pan Syndrom," speaks during Men's Day of Women's Week.
4. Women's Week featured the play "For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow is Enuf."
5. At the booth representing Nigeria during International Week are Gervase Anamelechi and Stan Taylor.

Novel weeks throughout the year added a little something different to Ohio Northern, as Religious Awareness Week, Black Awareness Week, Women's Week, and International Week all had something special to share with the campus. Religious Awareness Week began in October with the annual Ada CROP Walk. Over 70 participants finished a 10 mile walk and raised money to help feed the hungry in America and other countries. Other events which took place during the week were a Mini Marriage Seminar, showing of "Chariots of Fire," a lecture by Henry Holden concerning attitudes and the handicapped, chapel service with the Rev. Joseph Sprague speaking on "Tough Minds and Tender Hearts," a free outdoor Christian concert by "Likeness," and the opening concert of the year for ONU's "Son's Rays."

"Achievement Against the Odds" was the theme for Black Awareness Week. Held in February, the week featured music, food, and cultural events commemorative of black culture. The movie "Gospel" was shown, Lima area choirs performed, slides were shown, a special soul food buffet dinner was served, and the Black Student Union held a banquet and dance. Chapel service was conducted by the Rev. Cornelius Henderson and there was special music presented by law student Gabelle Johnson.

March brought both Women's Week and International Week to campus. A style show targeted at the professional man and woman of the '80s started Women's Week off in fashion. During the week, activities centered around the theme "The Modern Woman: A Kaleidoscope," and included two presentations by Dr. Dan Kiley, author of "The Peter Pan Syndrome," a performance by New York City's Daedalus Company of "For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow is Enuf," showing of the Artist Series Film "Julianne and Marianne," a woman's organizational bazaar, and Mortar Board Tapping during Thursday's chapel with the Rev. Valerie Waibel, an ONU alumna.

"The World is at Your Doorstep" opened International Week events to the campus. 3 films were shown during the week; a documentary on Palestine, one on Egypt, and the award-winning "Gandhi." An International chapel was held, and on Thursday the "Festival of the World" bazaar took place in McIntosh, featuring arts, crafts, costumes, and customs of 26 countries. With a continental focus on Asia and India, a buffet dinner featuring traditional Indian cuisine, a fashion show of national dress, and Eastern and Western music by the group "Destination," brought the week to a close.

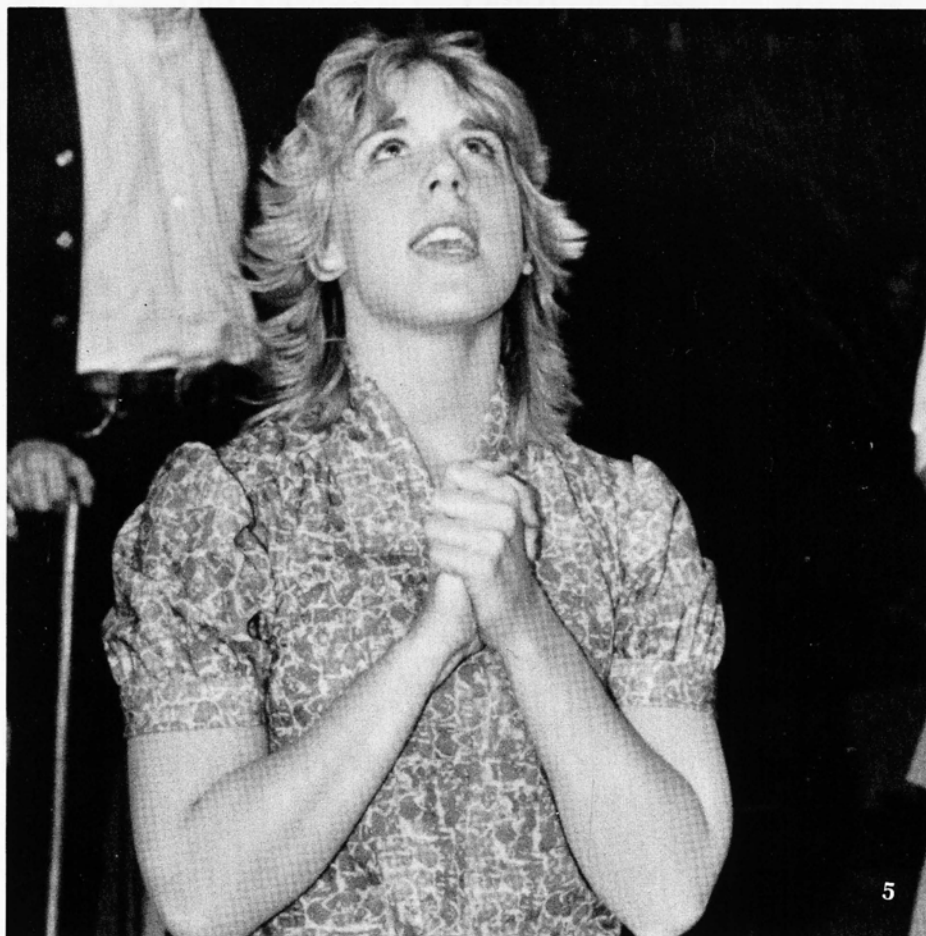

ONU theatre had a lot to offer this year as the season opened with production of The Runner Stumbles, by Milan Stitt. Presented in Lehr auditorium by a cast of students ranging from freshmen to P-5's, the story revolved around the murder of a young nun and the trial which followed. The winter quarter theatre production brought Steinbeck's Of Mice and Men to campus. In March, the Children's Theatre production of Stomach-Ache traveled to 20 area elementary schools and performed the show 28 times, including an on campus show during Little Sibs Weekend. A satirical look at life in the big business world left the audience laughing in the Spring quarter musical production of How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying. And, the students and faculty of the Dept. of Foreign Language presented "Spanish Theatre of the 40's:80's Style," in the Black Box. The performance consisted of 3 famous scenes from Spanish plays of the 1940's along with the 1980's version of La Casa de Bernarda Alba (The House of Bernardo Alba), and La Barca Sin Pescador (The Boat Without a Fisherman). The major presentation of La Dama Del Alba (The Lady of the Dawn) followed, with students performing at ONU and at a 2 day Spanish Theatre Festival held at Earlham College.

ONU Theatre Offers A Variety Of Stage Productions

1. Cast of The Runner Stumbles included Andrew Kreitzer as the Prosecutor, Tracey Morey as Louise, Mike Clawson as Monsignor Nicholson, Sue Smith as Sister Rita, Susan Reed as Mrs. Shandig, James Zimmie as Amos, James Leagre as Toby Felker, Leslie Otcasek as Erna Prindle, and Dale Lakes as Father Rivard.

2. Performing during Little Sibs Weekend in the Children's Theatre production of Stomach-Ache, are Jennifer Berger as Biro, Kim Parsons as Michelle, and Sue Reed as Gilly.

3. Portraying Monsignor Nicholson in The Runner Stumbles is senior Mike Clawson.

4. Rehearsing for the production Of Mice and Men, are James Leagre and Doug Hobson.

5. Spanish Theatre performance of La Dama Del Alba (The Lady of the Dawn) featured Brad Fisher, Martha Long, and Anne Faisant.

Spring Arrives With Music In The Air

1. Lounging on the lawn and enjoying the good music are Joe Cherico and Mike Grimaldi.
2. Enjoying the free food and drinks and the conversation with one another are Todd Canter and Grace Hall.
3. An outside Saga line attracts the students to the free hamburgers, chips, and hotdogs provided during the Saturday afternoon concert.
4. Catching some sun during the concerts are Kathy Spilker, Ann Bassitt, and friend.
5. Waiting for Greta Thielking to serve up some free Pepsi are Cecelia Peters and Ellen Tirpak.
6. Moonlight Drive performs during the Not Necessarily A Concert concert, much to the enjoyment of the crowd.

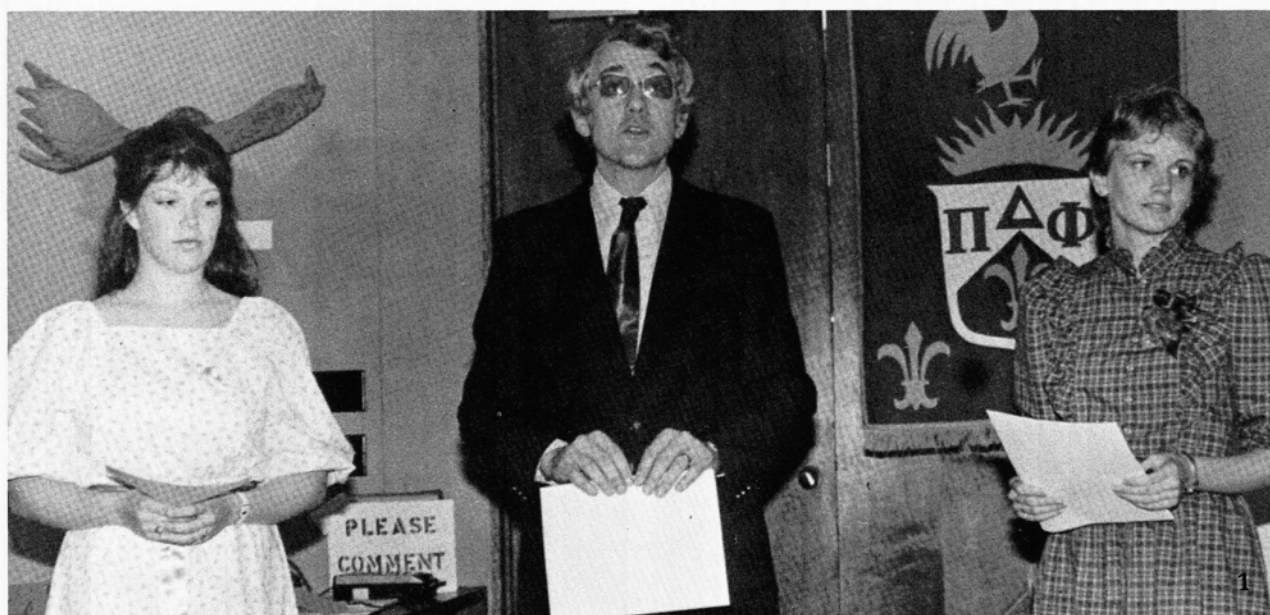

Spring Week marked the end of a long and cold Ada winter, and indicated that warmer weather and the end of the school year was on its way. The highlight of the week dedicated to Spring was the "Not Necessarily A Concert" festivities held outside in front of the Young Building on Saturday, April 28th. Several local bands came to Ada to perform for the all day concert, and included Krysis, Clampdown, Moonlight Drive, The Look, Revolver, and High Society. Both Krysis and Clampdown are bands made up of ONU students. In addition to the music, free food and drinks were provided by Saga. With such beautiful weather, good friends, and great sounds, the day was enjoyed by all.

Recognizing students for their academic achievements was what Honors Day was all about. Held on Thursday, May 3rd, classes were cancelled after 11 so that everyone could participate in activities within the various colleges. A university assembly held in King Horn started the day off. Speaking on "Great is Truth" was Dr. Peter Ackroyd, professor emeritus of Old Testament studies of Kings College, University of London. Academic programs followed in the afternoon with colleges and departments honoring their top students, and with honor societies initiating their new members. An Honors Day Banquet held in the Ballroom of McIntosh Center ended the evening with the top student in each class of each college being recognized and with the Dankook awards being presented to the outstanding graduating senior man and woman. Recipients were Joy Maddox and Charles Hardin, Jr. Other Departmental and college awards were as follows:

Saluting 142 Arts and Science graduates, 95 Business graduates, 120 Pharmacy graduates, 84 Engineering graduates, and 158 Law graduates, ONU held its commencement exercises on May 20th, 1984.

Commencement activities began on Saturday with a reception for graduates, family, and friends at the home of university president DeBow and Mrs. Freed. A graduation banquet followed in McIntosh with the ONU Jazz Band performing afterwards. Worship services led by Bishop Dwight Loder were held Sunday morning, while commencement exercises were held later that afternoon in King Horn. President DeBow Freed presided over the exercises and presented the diplomas. Commencement speaker was Dr. Robert Chalmers, a 1958 graduate of the Raabe College of Pharmacy. Rod Millisor presented the response for graduating students. Those receiving honorary degrees included Dr. Chalmers, Joe Edwards, Dr. Robert Klotman, Dr. Julius Matz, and Dr. Mary Runge.

1. Head above a stack of diplomas is Pharmacy graduate Sue Apicella.
2. Greeting senior Maria Parekh and her family is Dr. DeBow Freed during the President's reception at his home.
3. Law graduates prepare for commencement exercises.
4. With a smile and his diploma, Management/Marketing graduate, Don Hope, leaves the stage.
5. Law graduates exit their seats in order to receive their diplomas from the stage area.
6. Graduates listen attentively to commencement speakers.
7. Honored in a special service held in the Chapel, were law graduates.

This year's Cross Country team was very young and inexperienced, but despite these set backs Coach Daugherty was very pleased with the team. Just prior to the beginning of the season, the team lost three of its top runners. "Although we suffered our first losing season in over a decade, we showed a lot of improvement over the course of the season," said Daugherty. "We came back in the OAC meet to defeat teams that we had lost to earlier in the season." Coach Daugherty has an impressive career record of 116-34.

The highlight of the year came when Dan Shupe, a sophomore from Amanda, qualified for the NCAA Great Lakes Regional Cross Country Championships held in Albion, Michigan. In the Championship race Shupe placed 57th in a field of 160. Shupe qualified for the Regional Championship by finishing 23rd in the OAC championship race. Shupe and teammate Jim Bettinger, a senior from Zanesfield, led the Bears to an eighth place finish in the OAC championship race; bettering their ninth place team finish of a year ago.

Shupe and Bettinger were co-recipients of the team's Runner-of-the-Year Award. Congratulations to Coach Daugherty and the Cross Country team.

For the sixth consecutive year the Ohio Northern University gridders have ended their season with a winning slate. This year the Polar Bears ended with a 5-4 record overall and a 3-2 slate in the Ohio Athletic Conference Blue Division.

Coach Hood said, "Overall it was a good season, and I look forward to a strong returning nucleus for next year due to several underclassmen who gained quite a bit of playing experience this year."

The Bears put together a four game winning streak midway through the season.

1. An interception by ONU defensive back Jon Fields (5) against Marietta with Gordon Cox (18) in on the play.
2. Loosening up his arm is Mike Eicher (7) in preparation for the game.
3. Holding the ball is Brett Mason (41) for Jim George's practice kicking.
4. The 1983 Ohio Northern University Football Team (L to R) Row 1: Jeff Habegger, Russ Critelli, Mike Ford, Mark Ruetty, Ron Fairbanks, Matt Miller, Bob Sidloski, Derrick Fugua, Don Hope, Jim Black. Row 2: Duke Fleitz, Fred Gaynier, Royce Ruland, Todd Henkle, John Weidemann, Randy Ziemkiewicz, Dan Brubaker, Tom Allen, Brad Knodel, Jeff Howard, Mike Eicher. Row 3: Kevin Rahe, Jim Truett, Jerry Corbin, John Henton, Jeff Risner, Joe Cherico, Brad Fisher, John Grandillo, Jon Fields, Mike DeGaetano, Mike Stahl, Kevin John. 5. Ohio Northern's Junior Varsity gridders gain some experience in a night game.
6. Holding the ball tightly, Tim Schlosser (39) picks up some yardage for the Bears.
7. The offensive line of the Polar Bears is set for another play.

The Polar Bears won the Homecoming game against Marietta by crushing them 60-0. Some 3,500 fans turned out to watch the Bears win the sentimental game of the season.

For the second year in a row, the ONU Bears faced the Wittenberg Tigers for the OAC Blue Division Title. The Polar Bears fell short of their hopes of winning their second division title in as many years. The Tigers handed ONU a 17-3 loss. "They (Wittenberg) did to us what we did to them last year. They controlled the line of scrimmage," Coach Hood added, "We played sporadically, and we lacked consistency after the first quarter."

Several of the ONU players were selected for post season honors. Our congratulations go to Garry Curren, Jon Fields, Mark Reutty, and Kevin John for their selection to the All-Ohio Athletic Conference Team. Co-captains Matt Miller, a senior from Orient, and Derrick Fuqua, a senior from Columbus, were named Honorable Mention by the league. In addition to his All-OAC recognition, Garry Curren, a junior from Marion, was given the OAC's Critchfield Award which is given to the outstanding defensive player in the league. Some of our gridders were also honored academically. Selected for NCAA District 5 Academic All-American Honors were senior Matt Miller and juniors Brad Fisher and Fred Gaynier.

Congratulations to the ONU football team for a fine season.

1. Polar Bear Jon Fields (5) heads for a touchdown with Mike DeGaetano (55) escorting him to the end zone.

2. Quarterback Ted Bunnell (42) releases the ball in a junior varsity game played under the lights.

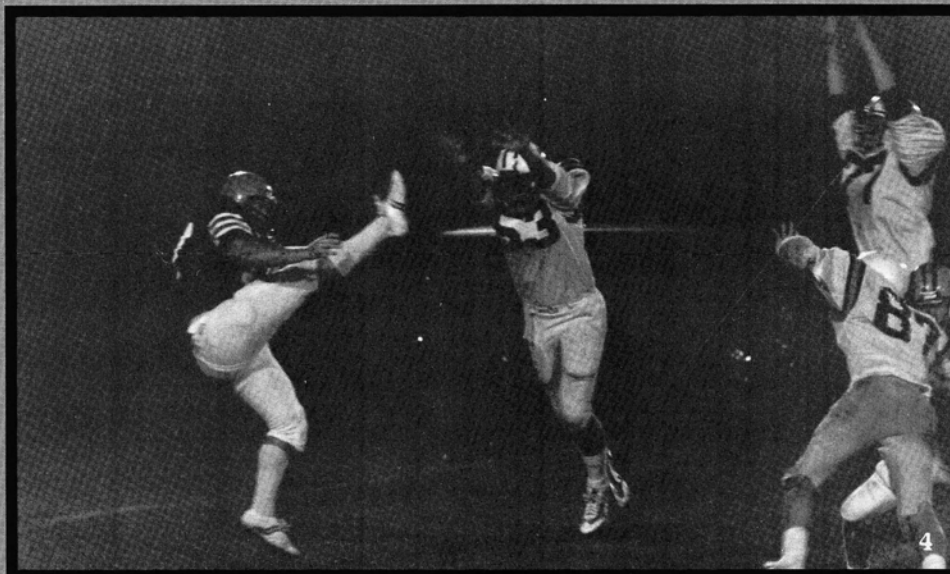

3. Punting the ball for the Bears is Ted Hardoby (45) after the offense falls short of a first down.

4. The junior varsity Bears attempt to block a punt during their night game.

5. After breaking a few tackles, Dave Hawthorne (9) gains some yardage.

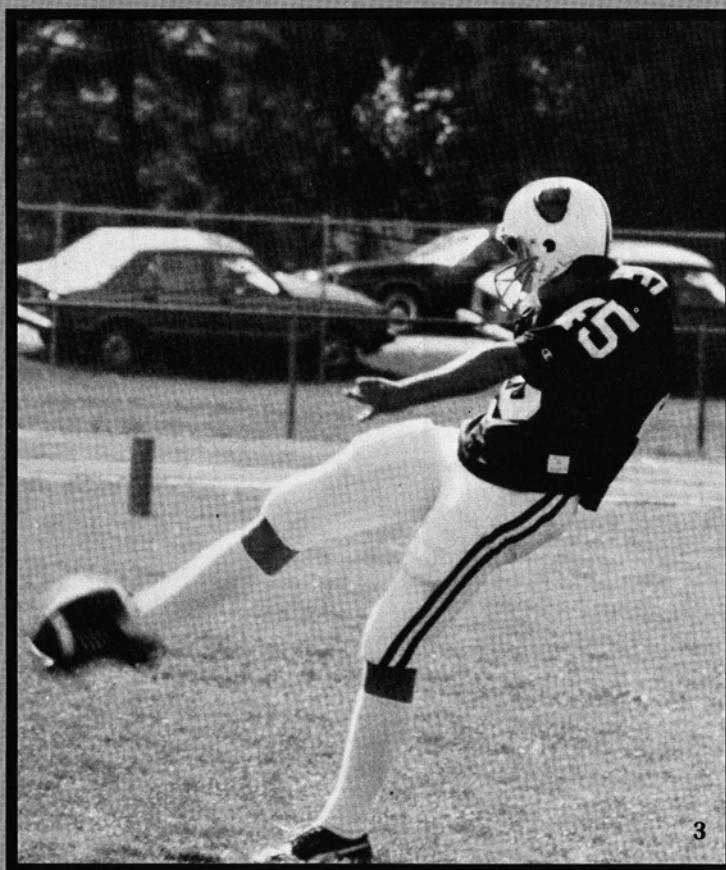

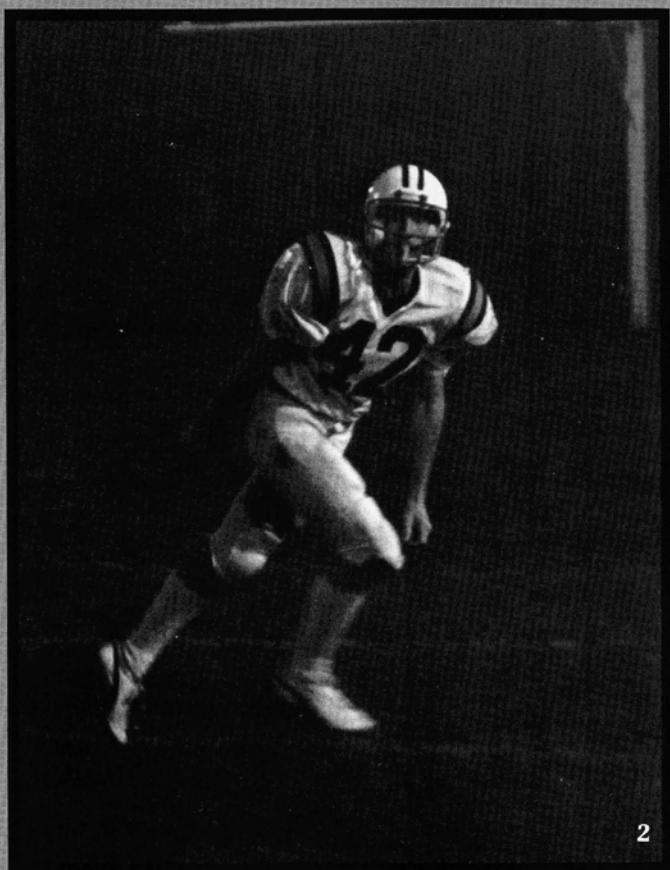

6. Looking on from the sideline, Coach Hood assesses his team's situation.

7. The Ohio Northern University Polar Bears proudly take to the field.

This year's soccer team finished the season with a 4-2 mark in the Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) and a 7-5 mark overall. This puts Coach Bhattacharya's career record at 59-50-6.

Both of this year's conference losses were close games. We lost to Wooster (0-1) with the only goal being scored a controversial one. Coach Bhattacharya's protest of the game was never resolved since the conference has no provisions for protest. The other conference loss was to Kenyon (1-2). The game was delayed once because of rain but was finally played under wet conditions anyway. Despite the fact we did not win the conference, we did beat the conference champion Mount Union.

This year's co-captains were seniors Kip Pichel and Craig Kasper. Post-season honors went to Marty Daniels who was named to the OAC's second team, and Alfredo Mendoza who was named to the OAC's first team, All Ohio Divisions I, II, & III team, and All American Mideast Region Team.

Coach Bhattacharya commented, "It was very important to the team that we prayed before and after each game." Congratulations on a fine season.

"California Here We Come" could have been the theme song for this year's O.N.U. women's volleyball team!

The Lady Bears' season was one big success after another: they were undefeated in their regular season play against conference schools (NCAA Div. III), they ended the regular season with a 33-8 record and post-season with a 34-9 record, and Coach Wallace received her 300th career win. Coach Wallace's fantastic career record is now 318-143.

Ohio Northern University has had a volleyball team for 15 years and has only had three losing seasons. This year's team improved on the tally; this was ONU's seventh consecutive winning season.

Not only did the team as a whole excell by receiving a bid and participating in the NCAA Regional Finals in California which resulted in the Lady Bears being tied for fifth in the nation but several individual athletes excelled as well. Carol Modica, team captain, was selected for the Centennial Athletic Conference (CAC) All Conference First Team along with teammates Lori Kane and Beth Breudigam. Modica and Mel Braidich were also honored by being named to the NCAA All-Region Tournament Team.

1. Preparation for a spike by Yvette Haas (8) as Lori Kane (25) moves to back her up.

2. The Lady Bears prepare to take their talents to the court.

3. Teammates Lori Kane (25) and Yvette Haas (8) are ready for a dink by the opponent.

4. Captain Carol Modica (20) serves the ball over the net.

5. The team shows why they are so superior with this team effort as Melanie Braidich (15) sets Beth Breudigam (24) for a spike, while the rest of the team prepares for a return.

6. The 1983 Ohio Northern University Volleyball Team (L to R) Row 1: Carol Modica. Row 2: Melanie Braidich, Jacque Strahley, Lori Kane, Yvette Haas, Beth Breudigam, Sue Libby, Kathy Hinkle. Row 3: Coach Wallace, Manager Deb Copeland, Student Coach Denise Callahan, Student Coach Cindy Ahle, Jill Henschen, Kelli Howe, Pam Hershberger, Jackie Austin, Trainer Kim Pendleton, Trainer Faith Rosselot, Assistant Coach Lauth.

7. A refreshing drink is passed from Yvette Haas (8) to Jill Henschen (9).

These accomplishments came under the leadership of Coach Sheila Wallace who was recognized by several others when she was named CAC Coach of the Year for the second year in a row.

Another highlight for this year's volleyball team was their trip to Europe. The team played in a series of exhibition matches in Holland, Belgium, France, and Germany from August 18-31. The Lady Bears participated in four matches during their stay. The team returned home with a record of 1-3.

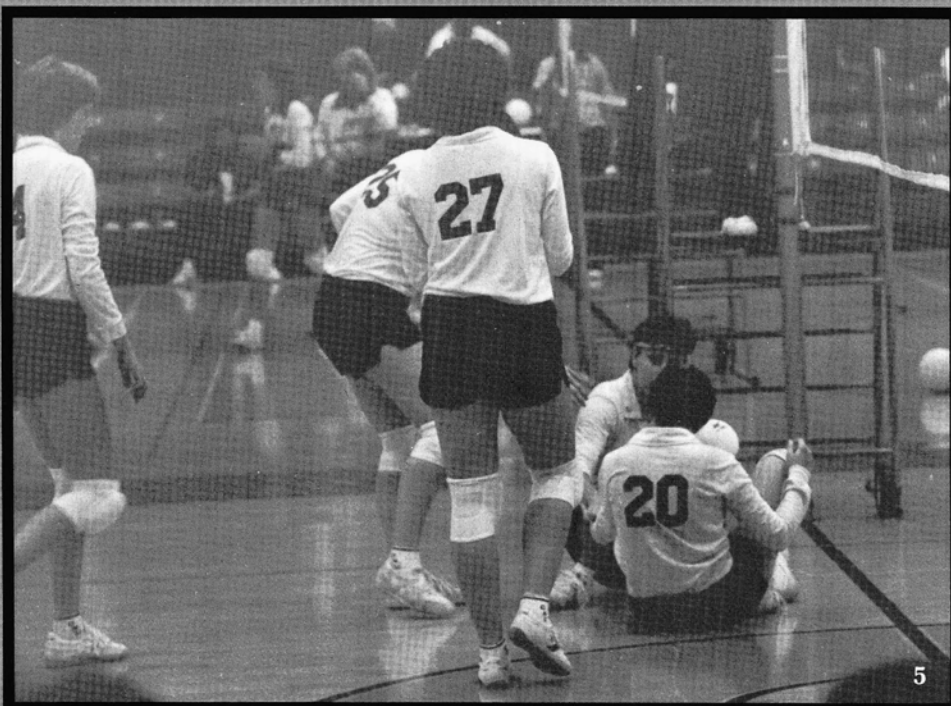

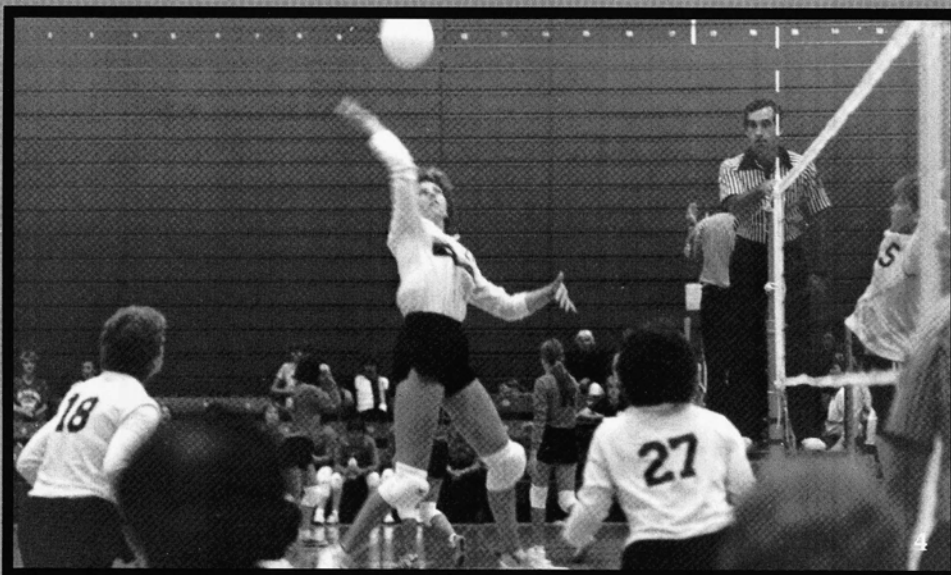

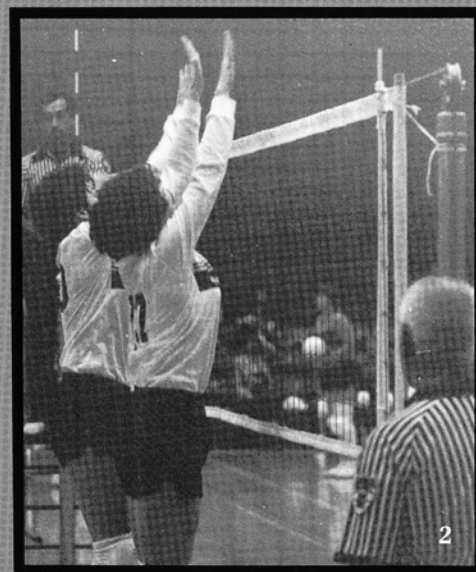

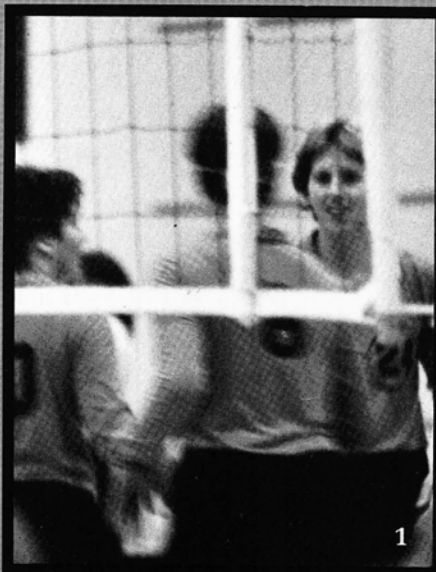

When not on the court, the team enjoyed sightseeing tours including such famous sights as: the Eiffel Tower, NATO headquarters, a wooden shoe factory, a cheese factory, and the Anne Frank house.

Coach Wallace commented, "It took a very special group of students to make this trip a reality." Wallace added, "It was one of the best, if not the best, experience we have ever had. It was fantastic!"

The trip was completely self-funded by the women who went. The Lady Bears had a few fundraising projects, and the rest came from their personal funds. The university contributed no monetary funds for the trip.

Congratulations to Coach Wallace and the 1983 ONU Women's Volleyball Team for a fine season, for a job well done in California, and for a well deserved trip to Europe!

1. The Lady Bears congratulate and encourage each other after a fantastic point.
2. With hands high overhead Kathy Hinkle (27) and Carol Modica (20) attempt to block a spike.
3. The Lady Bears take a breather.
4. Good form is shown as Beth Breudigam (24) spikes the ball over the net while Jacque Strahley (18) and Kathy Hinkle (27) get set for a return by the opponent.
5. The entire team is involved in this point as Beth Breudigam (24), Lori Kane (25), and Kathy Hinkle (27) come to the assistance of teammates Carol Modica (20) and Yvette Haas (8).
6. With ball high overhead Yvette Haas (8) prepares for the follow-through of her serve.
7. Defending a spike from the opponent, are Carol Modica (20) and Yvette Haas (8).

CHEERLEADING

School spirit was alive and well at Ohio Northern University thanks to the Polar Bear Cheerleaders. To help encourage our athletes, the cheerleaders decorated the locker rooms before each football and basketball game. Also, they decorated the team buses to promote school spirit. This year's cheerleading captains were Shari Birt and Phil Lettric.

Of course, ONU athletics wouldn't be the same if it weren't for our special cheerleader: the ONU mascot. The Bear's crazy antics were enjoyed by all the fans who attended the ONU athletic events this year.

The 1983-84 Cheerleading Squad members were: David Allen, Angelyn Atha, Shari Birt, Jenny Heydinger, David Hileman, Alisha Hill, Phil Lettric, Tim McCall, Brenda McChesney, and Rich Walker.

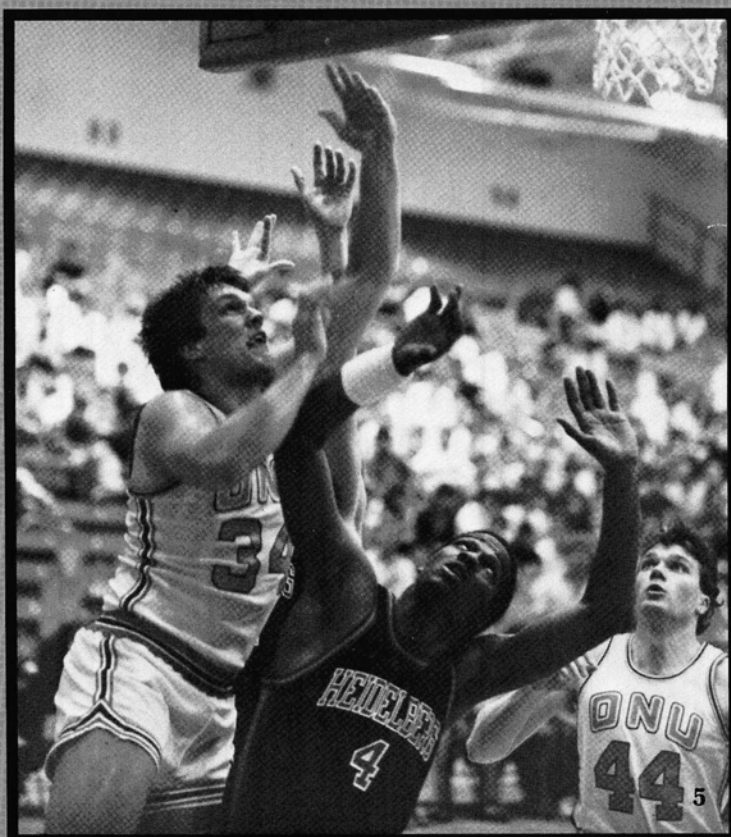

1. The ONU cheerleaders show their support for the football team.
2. The Bear amuses the basketball fans with one of his disguises.
3. During a time out, the cheerleaders form a pyramid with Jenny Heydinger on top.

The 1983-84 Polar Bears ended the season with a 16-10 mark overall and a 7-6 record in the Ohio Athletic Conference. En route to their winning season, the team presented Coach Daugherty with a new Ohio Northern record on December 5, 1983, when they defeated Concordia in Polar Bear country. This win gave Coach Daugherty his 183rd career coaching victory. The previous record of 182 wins was held by Marv English. By the end of the season, Daugherty's victories tallied 197.

The ONU Men's Basketball Team had the distinct honor of being ranked second in the nation among NCAA Division III schools in scoring defense. The Bears held their opponents to an average of 49.6 points per game.

One of the highlights of the season according to Coach Daugherty was the game against Tennessee. He said, "We played extremely well against big-time Tennessee before 12,000 spectators." Despite losing the game, ONU played a good game. Daugherty added, "The team beat three Division II opponents: Spring Arbor (58-44), Grand Valley (60-59), and Geneva (74-64). In addition to these three big wins, the Polar Bears had two big wins in the Ohio Athletic Conference: one against Wittenberg (70-53) and one against Otterbein (70-55). Congratulations on these big wins!

6. Going for the ball is Tony Brandewie (42) as teammate Steve Pohlman (50) watches.
7. Holding the ball over his head, Jeff Eyl (52) prepares to move against his opponent.

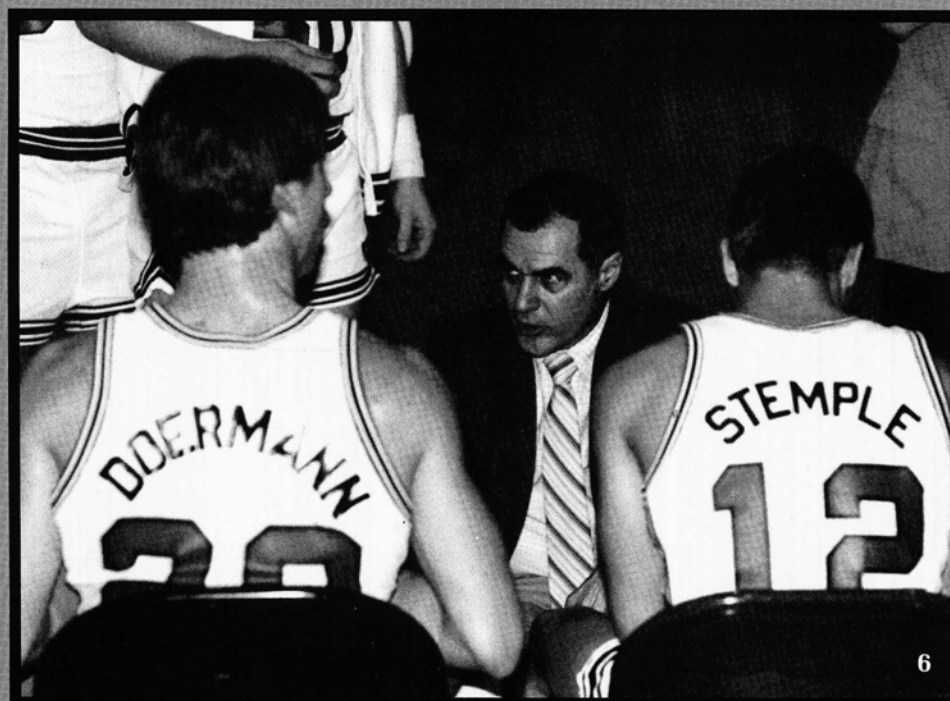

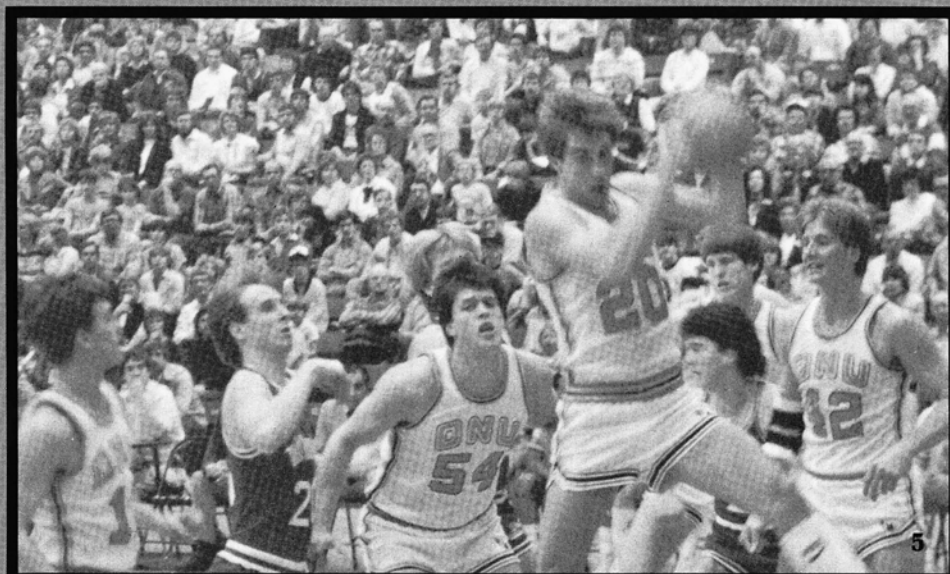

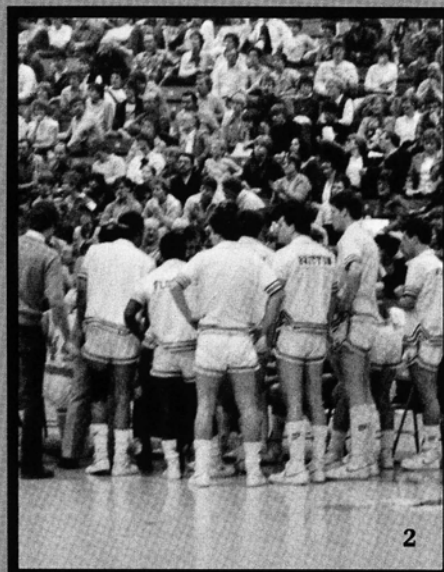

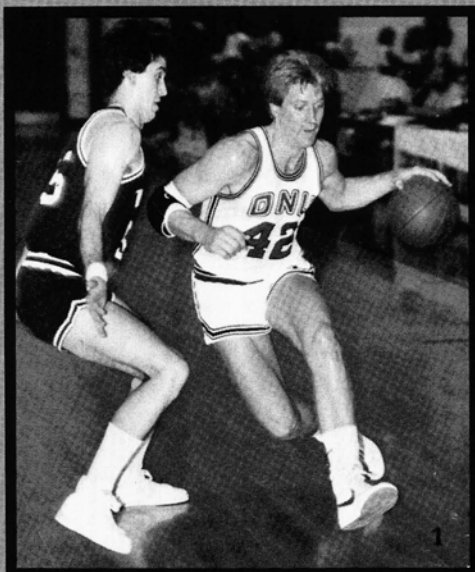

Unfortunately, Ohio Northern went down to defeat in the Ohio Athletic Conference Tournament in their 55-62 final season game against Oberlin.

Outstanding senior Paul Whitney earned several post-season honors. Whitney was named to the All-Tournament Team in the Aquinas College Tourney, the All-Tournament Team in the IUPUI Fort Wayne Classic, the All-Tournament Team in the Purple and Gold Classic. Also, he was named Most Valuable Player in the Aquinas College Tournament. Whitney was named to the All-OAC Second Team and the NABC All-Great Lakes Region First Team. He was sixth in the Ohio Athletic Conference in scoring, and he is the newest member of Ohio Northern's 1,000 point club with 1,074 points. He pulled down a grand total of 439 rebounds in his career at ONU. The culmination of all these awards came when Whitney was chosen to the All-American Third Team. According to Whitney, "This is frosting on the cake. I have to thank everybody on the team along with coaches Daugherty and Campoli for their help over the season." His selection to the team makes him ONU's fourth player in the past five years to gain All-American Honors in the NCAA. The Bears honored their senior forward with the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Teammate Tony Brandewie was awarded with the team's Defensive Player Award.

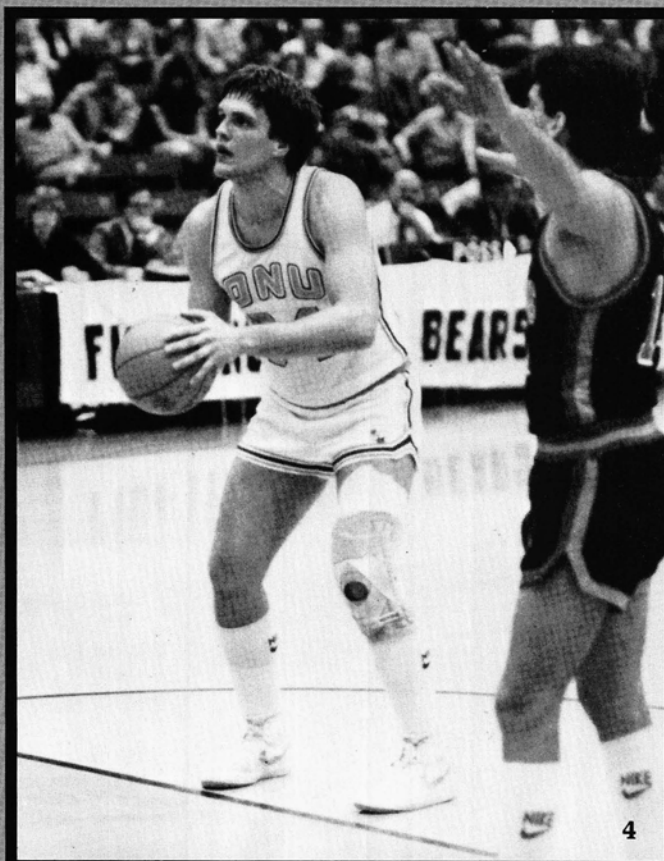

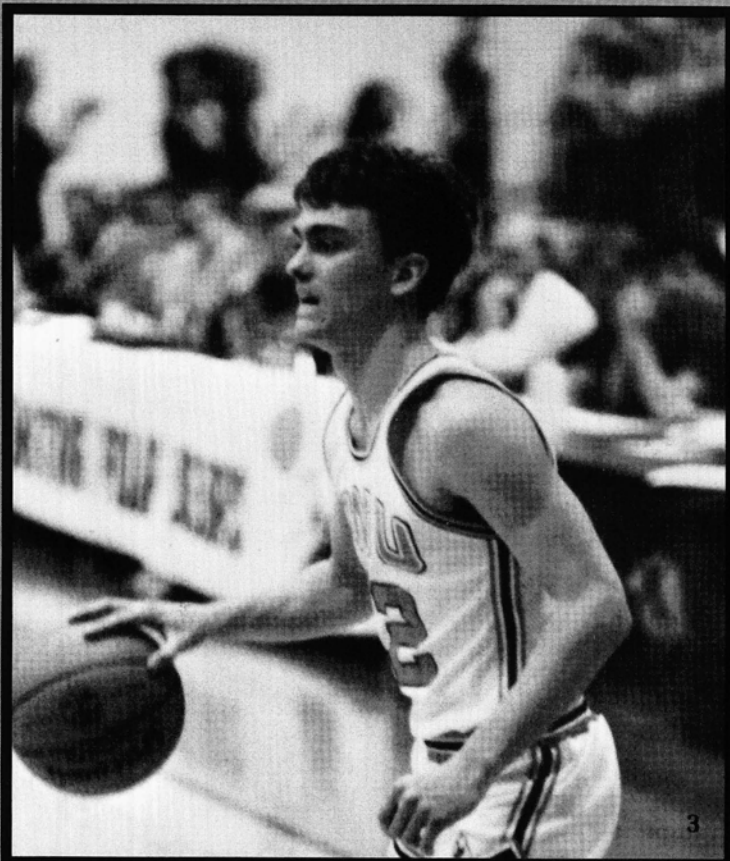

Congratulations on a fine season to Coach Daugherty and the Ohio Northern University Men's Basketball Team.

The 1983-84 Lady Bears earned their ninth consecutive winning season under Coach Lauth with a mark of 16-8. The team won the Centennial Athletic Conference Tournament by beating Muskingum in the championship game, thus avenging their only Division III loss of the regular season; they also received an NCAA bid to the championship tournament in Newark, New Jersey (Kean College) for the Atlantic Regionals.

Three members of the team received special honors. Robin Patterson was named to the All-Conference First Team and the All-Regional Tournament Team. Also, Patterson broke Ohio Northern's career scoring record by ending with 1207 career points. Jacque Strahley was named OIBCA Player of the Week for the State of Ohio Division III and the All-Conference First Team. Named to the All-Conference Second Team was teammate Julie Bell.

Coach Lauth said, "The highlights of the season were playing Dayton (#1 in Division II nationally), beating Malone (a national power in the NAIA), winning the CAC Tournament, and participating in the NCAA post-season tournament." Congratulations!

Coach Clarke said, "This was by far the most successful season ever for ONU swimming and diving." The men finished with a 2-4 record and the women finished with a 6-3 record. Clarke added, "ONU will miss two previous national qualifiers with the graduation of this year's team captains, Norm Baldwin and Sherri Hines, this year."

Two of the regular season highlights expressed by Clarke were the Florida training trip in Ft. Lauderdale during Christmas break and the women's dual meet upset over Kenyon College—the eventual national champs.

Greta Thielking was awarded Most Valuable Freshman Honors and Most Valuable Player Award for most points. For the men, Kevin Nall received the Most Valuable Freshman Award. Rick Jobe was awarded the Most Valuable Player Award for most points.

As the grand finale of this year's season, Ohio Northern's swimmers and divers made a fine showing at the NCAA Division III Championships in Atlanta. Jobe placed 16th in the one meter and 21st in the three meter diving events. Thielking finished 28th in the 200 yard butterfly. The 200 yard freestyle relay team consisting of Hines, Thielking, Christy Wagner, and Lynn Shanks finished 23rd in the nation.

Congratulations to Coach Clarke and the entire ONU swimming and diving team for your excellent performance this year!

4. Gliding through the pool is Greta Thielking.
5. In excellent form mid-air is Rick Jobe.

Twenty-two women's records were shattered this year. Greta Thielking set eight individual records. Thielking's records include the 50, 100, 200, 500, and 1000 yard freestyle; the 100 and 200 yard butterfly; and the 200 yard individual medley. Lynn Shanks set three new records. Shanks set new records in the 50, 100, and 200 yard backstroke. Meg Alexander set a new mark in the 1650 yard freestyle. In the 200 yard breaststroke Beth Barrett now holds the record, and in the 100 yard breaststroke Kristen Haggstrom has her name in the record book. Christy Wagner set a record in the 400 yard individual medley. Rhonda Skinner and Barb Lichtle set new records in the three meter and one meter diving events, respectively. The 800 yard freestyle team of Wagner, Hines, Thielking, and Kellie Snyder have the mark to beat. The new record holding 200 and 400 yard freestyle team consists of Hines, Shanks, Thielking, and Wagner. The 400 yard medley record is now held by Shanks, Barrett, Wagner, and Thielking. The 200 yard medley record setting team consists of Barrett, Hines, Shanks, and Wagner.

The men set nine records. Brent Kingseed set new times in the 1000 and 1650 yard freestyle event. In the 50 yard freestyle Jeff Black has the new mark. The 100 and 200 yard butterfly records are held by Kevin Nall. Mike Dolan set a new pace in the 400 yard individual medley. Rick Jobe set new records in both the one and three meter diving events. The 400 yard medley relay team of Norm Baldwin, Scott Baumgardner, Nall, and Dolan set a new time.

The 1983-84 Bears had a very successful year. They ended with a 15-5 record overall and finished 2nd in the OAC Championships.

The OAC championship was surrounded by controversy. Capital edged ONU by  $1\frac{1}{4}$  points. However one wrestler from Mount Union had officially forfeited a match only to decide later to wrestle. This is against OAC rules. Had the wrestler had been allowed to be reinstated for his match, the winner by official forfeit would have been a Bear. A win in that match (by forfeit) would have given ONU an edge over Capital of  $\frac{1}{4}$  point. A protest by Coach West failed to change things.

Mark Gundling, Mike Hatfield, and Mike Baker all finished in first place in their weight classes at the OAC championship. Thus, ONU is proud to have three OAC champions. Because of their wins, Gundling, Hatfield, and Baker advanced to nationals. At the national championships, Baker finished fourth and has been recognized as NCAA All-American.

Team honors went to co-captains Chapman and Hatfield for Most Take-Downs and Most Valuable Players. Chapman was recognized for most falls, also. Congratulations on a fine job!

This year's baseball team had one of the most successful seasons in ONU sports history. The Bears ended the regular season with a mark of 21-7. In post-season action the Bear's mark for tournament play was 1-4. Overall, the baseball team earned an impressive 22-11 record.

ONU's two year hold on the OAC baseball crown came to a halt this year as Marietta College had a doubleheader sweep against ONU in the conference championship. Going into the championship ONU was ranked seventh in the nation, while Marietta was ranked first in the country. The first game of the twinbill stopped Northern's OAC winning streak of 25 games in conference contests. Also, in the first game of the doubleheader, ONU's Jim Nagel, a junior righthander from Attica, lost his first collegiate outing in 12 attempts while dropping his first game of the 1984 year after reeling off eight straight wins.

ONU hosted the NCAA Div. III Regional Championships. The tourney followed a double-elimination procedure. In their first game against Oswego, the Bears pulled off a 3-2 victory; earning all three runs in the ninth inning. In the second game, North Park handed ONU their first loss with a 9-4 win. In the third game, Oswego avenged their earlier loss with a 21-20 win over ONU, thus eliminating the Bears.

Congratulations on a fine year!

Regional Runner-Up
Season Record: 15-6

The Ohio Northern University Softball team finished the regular season with a great showing, winning 11 of its last 12 games and posting a 13-4 regular season record. This marked the 17th straight winning season for the Lady Bears Softball team under the leadership of Coach Gayle Lauth.

"We had a very successful year," according to Coach Lauth. She was very pleased with the season, and she was overjoyed that the team received its second bid to post-season action. Ohio Northern was host to the NCAA Mid-East Regional Softball Tournament. Ohio Northern played both fourth ranked Allegheny and fifth ranked Calvin College, advancing to the title game against Calvin. ONU was defeated 2-1 in eight innings; the final ranking for the season placed Ohio Northern at 13th in the nation.

This year's team had the best offense in years. Everyone contributed to making the season a success. Five seniors will be leaving this year, but Coach Lauth feels that a strong nucleus will be returning next year.

Carol Modica earned a spot on the Mid-East All Regional Team, and she has been nominated for All-American Honors.

The ONU Men's Tennis Team finished the season with a record of 6-6 overall. Also, the team finished sixth in the Ohio Athletic Conference out of 14 teams. Their sixth place finish in the OAC is an improvement over their tenth place finish of a year ago.

"Everyone on the team won a match," stated Coach Lenssen. He added, "Each team member contributed to our scoring. This was easily our most successful season in years."

The OAC Championship Tournament, which was held at Ohio Wesleyan University, produced several winners for the ONU team. Winners of first round matches were: Scott Wills #1 singles, Dave Yeagley #2 singles, Jeff Lawhorne #5 singles, Wills/Yeagley #1 doubles, and David Burt/Ted Bunnell #2 doubles. Winners of the consolation round finals were: Bunnell #2 singles, Burt #4 singles, and Lawhorne/Tom Schneider #3 doubles.

The future looks good for the Bears. All team members will be returning next year. Coach Lenssen feels a second place finish at next year's conference championships is quite possible.

This year's team captain, selected by the players, was Dave Yeagley.

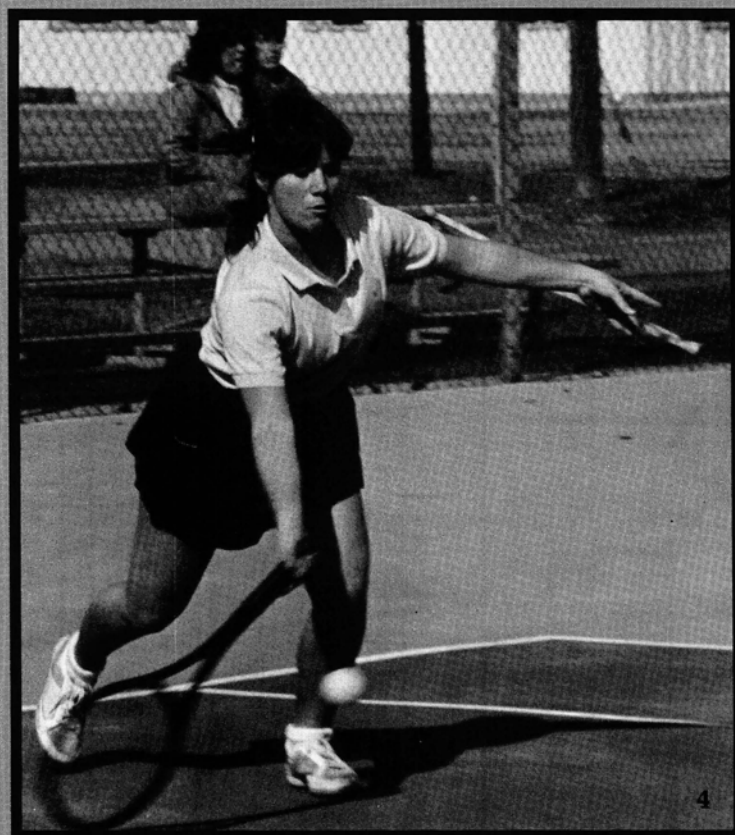

Congratulations for a fine season and for your improvements over this past year to the Men's Tennis Team!

The Lady Bears Tennis Team finished well in both the CAC and overall. They finished with a 4-3 record in the CAC, and they had a mark of 7-3 overall.

Coach Banks commented, "We had a very strong team this year with a lot of depth for a young team." Three freshman occupied the #1, #3, and #4 singles positions. They were Erica Gonzalez, Christy Wagner, and Trisha Haning. The #2, #5, and #6 singles positions were filled by upperclassmen.

The team has reason for optimism next year. Next year the team will have several returning players.

The women entered the State Division III College Tournament held at Oberlin this year. Of the 14 schools entered in the tournament, ONU finished an impressive 6th. Four team members were seeded in the tournament. Christy Wagner was seeded fourth in the #3 singles, Trisha Haning was seeded third in the #4 singles, Michelle Bittle was seeded second in the #5 singles, and Lisa Bumbaugh was seeded second in the #6 singles. The entire team participated in the tournament — six singles and three doubles. Wagner and Haning advanced to the semi-finals. The big winner was Bumbaugh who won the #6 singles. She never lost a match at that position enroute to her state championship.

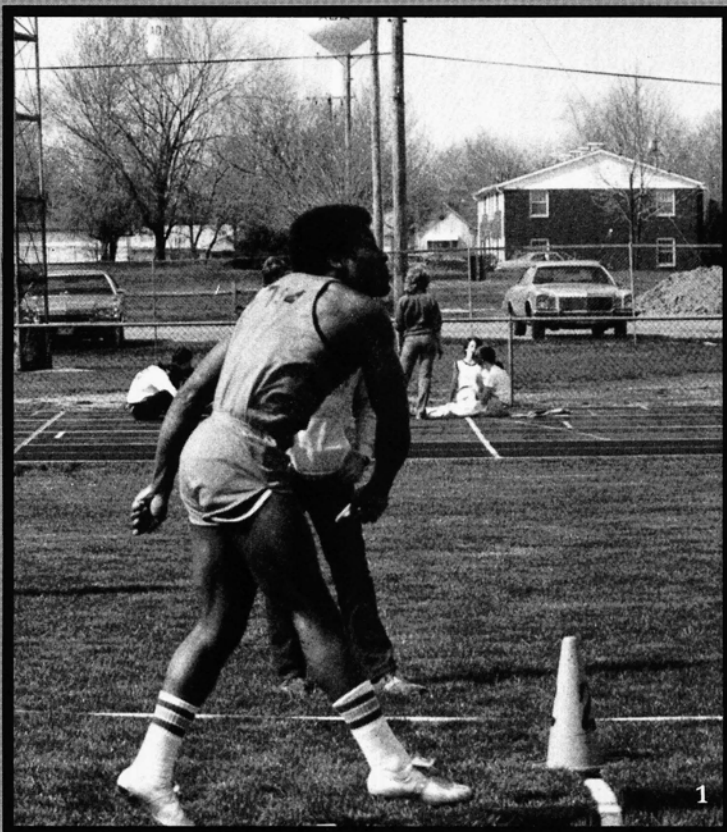

Congratulations to the Lady Bears on their fine job!

The Men's Track Team had a fine season this year. They finished with a record of 5-2. Coach Cook was pleased with this finish for his team.

"I was very happy with the number of freshman and sophomores on the team," commented Coach Cook. He added, "I wish more of the athletes on campus would come out for the varsity athletics. A number of very talented runners don't participate."

Several athletes advanced to the OAC Championships. Sophomore Ted Beam qualified for three events; 100 meters, discus, and javelin. Sophomore Dave Whitaker qualified for the 200 meters; also qualifying for the 200 meters was sophomore Bill Kanney. Qualifying for the 110 high hurdles were freshman Paul Bentley and senior Scott Swartz. In the high jump, Dave Mangas made it to the championships. Discus thrower Jim Mankin and javelin thrower Tom Weidley both qualified in their respective events.

In the conference meet on May 11th-12th, Jim Mankin, a sophomore, earned a 6th place finish in the discus.

"Overall, the team was very competitive and hard working," said Coach Cook. Congratulations for a fine performance this year!

After getting off to a slow start, the Women's Track Team came on strong to end their season with a winning record of 7-5. Coach Rodgers said, "The way the spring began, we wondered if it would ever be fit to run a track meet, but we were fortunate and were able to run all of our scheduled meets. We had a small squad but did quite well in competition."

The team captains for this year's team were Robin Patterson and Jan Lundstrom. The team honored Patterson and Annemarie Long with the team Most Valuable Player Award in field events and running respectively. Patterson and Long qualified for All-CAC Honors in their respective specialties of javelin and 400 meter hurdles. Long also set three school records this year. She set new marks in the long jump, 100 meter hurdles, and the heptathlon.

"I was pleased with our team and their efforts throughout the season, and I felt our seniors did an excellent job for us. We finished our season by finishing 4th in the CAC meet which was an improvement over the 7th place finish of 1983," commented Coach Rodgers.

The two top point scorers for the Women's Track Team this year were Long with 140.5 and Patterson with 128.5.

Congratulations to the Lady Bears Track Team for a fine job and for your improvements over this past year!

RUGBY

Rugby Returns to Ohio Northern

This year the ONU 'Barbarians' played for the first time since 1980. The team was revived this year by former Polar Bear wrestler Mike Oradini. Oradini said, "I had the desire to play rugby, so I called the Rugby Union for a list of teams and scheduled six games.

This year's team was inexperienced, but they did a fantastic job. All the players were fine athletes. Only five of the twenty team members had experience at the game.

Rugby is played on a field 110 yards long and 75 yards wide. The game is played in two halves, each lasting 25 minutes. There are 15 players on each side with no substitutions allowed. There is no blocking, only tackling the ball carrier. The ball may be advanced up the field by being carried or kicked. Any passing must be lateral or backwards.

There are four ways of scoring points in rugby. A 'touchdown', known as a try is worth four points. The 'extra point' kick is worth two points. A team can also gain three points by drop-kicking the ball through the goal posts, but this rarely happens. There are also 'free-kicks' after penalties which are also worth three points.

"Hopefully a new ONU tradition has begun — rugby," commented Oradini.

Congratulations Barbarians!

Theta Alpha Phi

Theta Alpha Phi is the national honorary theatre fraternity. It recognizes superior achievement and high personal standards of character and leadership as demonstrated in sustained active participation in the ONU theatre programs.

AMPUL

The AMPUL is the publication of the Raabe College of Pharmacy which is mailed to all graduates of the college to inform them of current events and to initiate their support. It has a mailing pool of approximately 3,500 pharmacists and doctors. The publication is self-supporting from advertising and alumni contributions and provides journalistic experience for current students.

Campus Chest

Campus Chest is an organization that, with the support and aid of various campus organizations, raises money for local charities. Usually held in January, it is the annual Campus Chest Carnival.

CBA Deans Advisory Council

The CBA Advisory Council is made up of two CBA students from each undergraduate class elected annually by College of Business Administration majors to serve on this advisory board to the Dean.

Drug Awareness Team

The Drug Awareness Team is an outstanding professional program of SAPHa — OSPA which visits numerous high schools and service groups to give demonstrations and lectures on drug abuse.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is made up of men and women who have played in a high school or college sport. This is an organization of Christian athletes who share a common bond to the Lord.

German Club

ONU's German Club, Die Sprechrunde, offers students of Germany the opportunity to practice German in a relaxed and informal setting. The club generally meets once a week for lunch, with periodic evening gatherings and special events. The German Club also helps publish the quarterly German newspaper Die Barenzeitung, and organizes occasional outings to German-related events in the area.

Health & Physical Education Majors/Minors Club

The HPEMM Club is open to any interested students, however, those who are physical education and health majors or minors are required to be members. The club has sponsored Jump-A-Thons for the American Heart Association and sports clinics for children in grades K-12.

Polaris

The Polaris is the campus literary magazine. It gives the students and faculty with art objects or written works a medium by which to exhibit them to the University community.

The spirit of Ohio Northern's Greek life reflected enthusiasm and unity as Greek Week continued throughout the week of April 8th. The opening event, the Kappa Psi Car Rally, began the series of competitions with Zeta Tau Alpha and Delta Sigma Phi taking first place. The Alpha Xi Deltas and Sigma Phi Epsilons finished in second place.

As the week continued, members of Alpha Xi Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Delta Zeta, Zeta Tau Alpha, Delta Sigma Phi, Phi Mu Delta, Sigma Pi, Phi Kappa Theta, Kappa Psi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon were present to hear Ed King, dean of men at Bradley University, speak on "Faculty Interaction with Greeks and the Importance of Ritual." Ed King's speech was both enlightening and humorous.

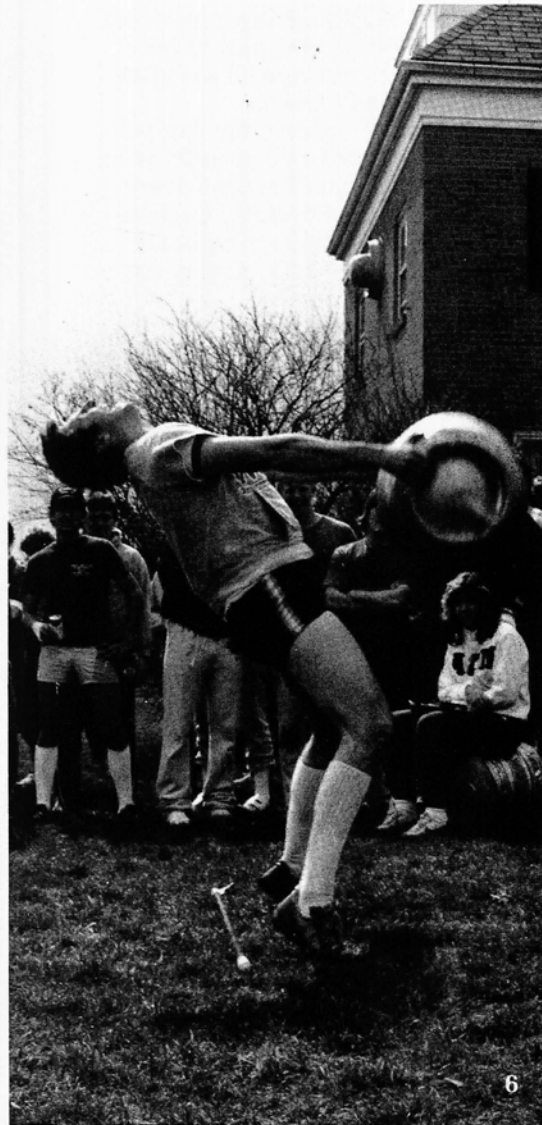

On Wednesday, the highlight of the evening was the annual Talent show in McIntosh Ballroom, sponsored by Phi Mu Delta. Every fraternity and sorority participated with their own original, very unique ideas of talent. Top honors were shared by Alpha Xi Delta with their rendition of "Hey Big Spender" and Sigma Pi's act on unity. The runners up were Zeta Tau Alpha and Sigma Phi Epsilon taking second, with Alpha Omicron Pi and Delta Sigma Phi taking third.

A colorful chapel on Thursday was conducted by Mrs. Catherine Freed. She addressed her presentation to the Greeks on the topic of "Celebration" with the accompaniment of the all Greek choir. The same evening, Greek Sing was held. Throughout the event the sounds of music rang throughout King Horn, with first place honors going to Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Zeta, Kappa Psi, and Theta Chi. Second place was taken by Alpha Omicron Pi, Zeta Tau Alpha, and

Alpha Xi Delta

The Gamma Tau chapter of Alpha Xi Delta was founded at Ohio Northern on May 16, 1959 when the local sorority Tau Kappa Kappa became affiliated with the national organization. The group stresses high academics, career development, self-awareness, and leadership skills to each of its members. To go along with this, they are currently ranked first scholastically among Greek sororities and fraternities and are the current holders of the Panhellenic scholastic achievement award.

The Alpha Xis are active in many campus activities such as Mortar Board, professional clubs and organizations, and others. The group supports the American Lung Association by sponsoring Toys for Tots which are donated to a nearby orphanage at Christmas time. During Greek Week the Alpha Xis were honored with first place for the PMD Talent Show and for Greek Sing. They also took second place in the Kappa Psi Car Rally. Their annual Rose Formal was held at the Marriot in Dayton and their new sweetheart, Dana Gross, was announced.

Theta Chi

The Theta Chi fraternity was founded in Norwich, Vermont in 1956. The Ohio Northern Chapter was formed in 1965. The brothers take part in many extracurricular activities such as athletics, IFC, intramural sports, band, and various honorary organizations.

The brothers of Theta Chi attempted to host an "Ice Break," or wet t-shirt contest this year, but their efforts were rained on due to lack of participation. Their eighth annual running marathon, however, was a success as the money was raised for the West Ohio Lung Association. Greek Week brought the year to an end as the Theta Chis took first place in the Greek Sing competition.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Zeta Tau Alpha is a sorority which promotes friendship. It gives each member an opportunity to develop leadership abilities, make life-long friends, and learn cooperation within a large group. Zetas are involved in many campus activities such as professional organizations, clubs, Mortar Board, Campus Chest, and Little Sis programs. This year, Pam Lewis, their Homecoming Queen candidate was elected to the Queen's Court. Zeta Tau Alpha's community support burned bright throughout the year. They assisted the community of Ada in their annual Children's Halloween Costume Parade and helped spread Christmas cheer by caroling for the children of the Blanchard Valley Developmental Center. Dan Williams was announced as their new sweetheart as the Zetas completed another successful year by finishing in first place for Greek Week.

Sigma Pi

The Sigma Pi Zeta chapter was established at Ohio Northern in May of 1912. With a total brotherhood of over a thousand, it is one of the largest chapters of Sigma Pi nationally.

The brothers are actively involved in campus activities such as Student Senate, soccer, football, and others. The Sig Pi's held their annual Beach Party which was a memorable event for everyone that attended. Their trademark for the year, especially in the springtime, was rafting on the lake. Carnival activities for Campus Chest once again featured the Sigma Pi Egg Drop which won best contest. Sigma Pi Sam DiGiacomo was honored with both Homecoming King and Greek Week King. In addition, the Sig Pi's took top honors during the PMD Talent Show as the year came to an end.

Kappa Psi

In 1920, the Gamma Delta Chapter of Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity was founded. It is the only social/professional fraternity on campus as all its brothers are enrolled in the College of Pharmacy. Kappa Psi brothers become involved with a wide range of professional and social activities.

The KYs placed second for their Homecoming float, and they once again hosted a successful Campus Chest. The Gamma Delta Chapter was also honored with "Chapter of the Year" in their region for 1982-83. The brothers demonstrated their professionalism by helping freshmen study for their first chemistry exam, by washing and waxing the Ada-Library Rescue Squad, and by sponsoring the 14th Annual Blood Pressure Screening Clinic. Greek Week ended the year with a first place in Greek Sing.

Phi Kappa Theta

Formerly known as Theta Kappa Phi, the name was changed in 1959 to the Ohio Zeta Chapter of Phi Kappa Theta national fraternity. The brothers strive for excellence in both academics and extracurricular activities.

Throughout the year, Phi Kaps were active in athletics, clubs, and Greek events. In an effort to promote better relations between faculty and their fraternity, a dinner was held for faculty and administration. Homecoming brought Phi Kaps a third place finish in the pushmobile races. Their annual Charity Basketball Marathon raised money for the Ada FISH program, and following the marathon a party was held at the Phi Kap house in which canned food was a requirement for admittance. All the food was donated to the Ada Food Pantry. In addition, their new advisor, Robert D. Logsdon, was announced. The end of the year brought the annual Spring Formal at the Dayton Holidome South, where the Phi Kaps announced their new house sweetheart, Pam Lewis.

Phi Mu Delta

Founded as a national fraternity in 1918, the local chapter, Mu Beta, was installed at Ohio Northern in 1926. The Phi Mu Delta brotherhood is active in many campus and local activities as well as maintaining high academic and athletic standings.

The brothers actively support the community through various service projects such as participating in the Ada community CROP walk, visiting rest homes at Christmas, raising money for the American Cancer Society and Unicef, and sponsoring an Easter party for the Head-Start preschool program. PMDs also hosted their first annual Faculty Christmas Dinner prepared by their house mom, Judy Tabor.

The PMDs celebrated Homecoming by winning first place for their float, and Campus Chest by having Scott Samhric as Campus Chest King. They took third place in Greek Sing as the year concluded.

Alpha Omicron Pi

The object of the Alpha Omicron Pi chapter at Ohio Northern is to encourage a spirit of love and friendship among its members. It also encourages them to stand at all times for integrity, dignity, scholarship, and college loyalty.

The AOPis celebrated Homecoming by once again placing first in the annual pushmobile races. Actively participating in campus events, the sisters are participants in intramural athletics, Student Senate, and professional clubs and organizations. The carnival activities for Campus Chest featured the Alpha Omicron Pi jail as best booth, Katie Pietrykowski as Campus Chest Queen, and Karen Suchanek as "Best Legs." Their Volleyball-A-Thon was successful as the sisters raised money for the Arthritis Foundation. During Greek Week, AOPis took second place in the Greek Sing competition.

Alpha Sigma Phi

The Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity was founded nationally in 1845. The local chapter was instituted in 1942. It has as basic underlying principles brotherhood, sports, and scholarship.

Homecoming initiated the year as the Alpha Sigs placed first in the pushmobile races. Following the winning football game at Homecoming the Sigs hosted their annual Hog Roast for over 300 alumni and family. In addition, the Alpha Sigs initiated eleven new members this year and announced Sandra Taylor as their new sweetheart.

ONU Has A Lot To Offer

Ohio Northern University, a private, United Methodist Church-related university in Ada, Ohio, has much to offer its student population. Consisting of five fine colleges including the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Business Administration, the College of Engineering, the College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences, and the College of Law, ONU provides a solid educational background for entry into many professional fields.

The Getty College of Arts and Sciences is made up of five divisions: Fine Arts, Humanities, Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Social Sciences, and Teacher Education. A bachelor of arts degree is offered in the major fields of art, biology, chemistry, college student personnel, communication arts, computer science, elementary education, English/English writing, French, gerontology, history, industrial technology, mathematics, music, music education, music performance, health education, philosophy, philosophy & religion, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, public administration, public relations, religion, sacred music, social work, sociology, Spanish, speech & theatre. A bachelor of music is offered in music education, performance, and sacred music. A bachelor of fine arts is offered in painting, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, or graphic design. And, a bachelor of science degree is offered in biology, medical technology, or chemistry. A preprofessional curricula also exists for students interested in prelaw, premedicine, pretheology, or predentistry.

The College of Business Administration offers studies in five disciplines. Students completing a major in this area may receive the bachelor of science degree in accounting, economics, finance, management, and marketing. A prelaw program also exists within the College of Business Administration.

In 1871, the first catalog of the university included a course in surveying. Today, the College of Engineering offers a bachelor of science degree to students in civil engineering, electrical engineering, or mechanical engineering. Engineering options also exist in the fields of management, computer science, and public administration.

Students enrolled in the Rudolph H. Raabe College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences find themselves faced with a five year curriculum. Extensive coursework, work in a clinical setting, and a structured externship program all take place before the student is awarded the bachelor of science degree in pharmacy.

Lastly, Ohio Northern is home to the Claude W. Pettit College of Law. Founded in 1885, it is the second oldest college of law in the state of Ohio. It offers a three year graduate program leading to the degree of juris doctor.

Without a doubt, Ohio Northern University offers its students a fine academic program to choose from, and solid educational training in many professions.

New faculty and staff members are sharing their time with students and bringing their talents to Ohio Northern thanks to the fact that the university has brought some new faces to campus this year.

Early in July, two positions were filled in the Office of Public Information. Pat Obert was appointed to the position of director of public information, and Cliff Hadley was made assistant director of public information. Before accepting her position at Northern, Obert was director of publications at Wittenberg University. She has had experience as editor and writer for various newspapers and college publications, and is especially interested in photography. After receiving a certificate in photography and design from the Arts Academy of Cincinnati, she received a bachelor of science degree from the University of Cincinnati. Obert has had two photography shows and has had several photographs published. In 1981, a photograph of hers was awarded an honorable mention in the "Los Angeles Times" annual photography contest. She has also received recognition for her writing by the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. Her responsibilities at Northern include coordinating the news bureau and sports information office, as well as all internal and external public information needs of the university. She is also advisor of the Northern yearbook.

Cliff Hadley's job as assistant director of public information includes the design, layout, and production of university publications. He is also responsible for writing feature articles, news stories, and copy for the publication materials. Previously, Hadley was director of college and community relations at Urbana College. He received his bachelor of arts degree in English at Wittenberg University.

Three new faculty members were hired by Ohio Northern's newly formed Communication Arts Department; Edward Kruis, Karen and Michael Shelton. Edward Kruis has served as designer and technical director for this year's theatre productions. He has also taught some theatre classes including Theatre Technology and Theatre History. He received his bachelor's degree from Dordt College and his master's degree in fine arts from Wayne State University.

Michael and Karen Shelton both received their bachelor's and master's degrees from Eastern Illinois University. He serves as the director of debate and as a visiting instructor in speech. She serves as the director of public relations and as a visiting professor in that department, while also teaching classes in speech and broadcasting.

As a visiting professor of chemistry, Dr. Ole Mols is teaching Chemistry 100, and some labs for general chemistry, engineering chemistry, and organic chemistry. He holds an M.S. in chemical engineering and a Ph.D. in organic chemistry from the Technical University of Denmark. Prior to his appointment at Northern, Mols was at Ohio State University, where he received a postdoctoral fellowship for research and maintenance on a nuclear magnetic resonance spectroscopy instrument.

Returning to Northern as the new program director is 1982 graduate, Richanne Cunningham. Having majored in psychology and sociology, she was previously employed as a branch supervisor and new accounts supervisor for Citizens Savings & Loan Association in Tiffin. Her responsibilities at Northern now include administration of Student Services' activity programs, coordination of programs involving off-campus groups using McIntosh Center, and coordination of activities involving groups using campus facilities during the summer. She is also director of the student-run Campus Activities Board.

The Rev. Steve Gill came to ONU from a five year pastorate in Springfield, and is currently the university's new chaplain. He has started some new programs in the chapel which include Sunday evening bible study, morning prayer services, and working with the married students on campus. He has also been available for counseling and other various outreach programs.

In other areas, Daniel L. Kratzer was named head football coach and assistant professor of health and physical education. Previously, he was an assistant coach at Indiana University, a wide receiver in the National Football League with both the Kansas City Chiefs and the Cincinnati Bengals, and an assistant football coach at Missouri State University. He has also been head football coach at two Missouri high schools. In 1982, he served as an administrative aid to Bill Walsh of the San Francisco 49ers, involved with the preparation of the offensive staff for the 1983 Super Bowl Champions. Here at ONU will be Kratzer's first head coaching job at the collegiate level.

And, a search for a new law dean ended. Dr. Gaynor VanLandingham was appointed Dean of the Pettit College of Law.

Search For Law Dean Ends With Appointment of VanLandingham

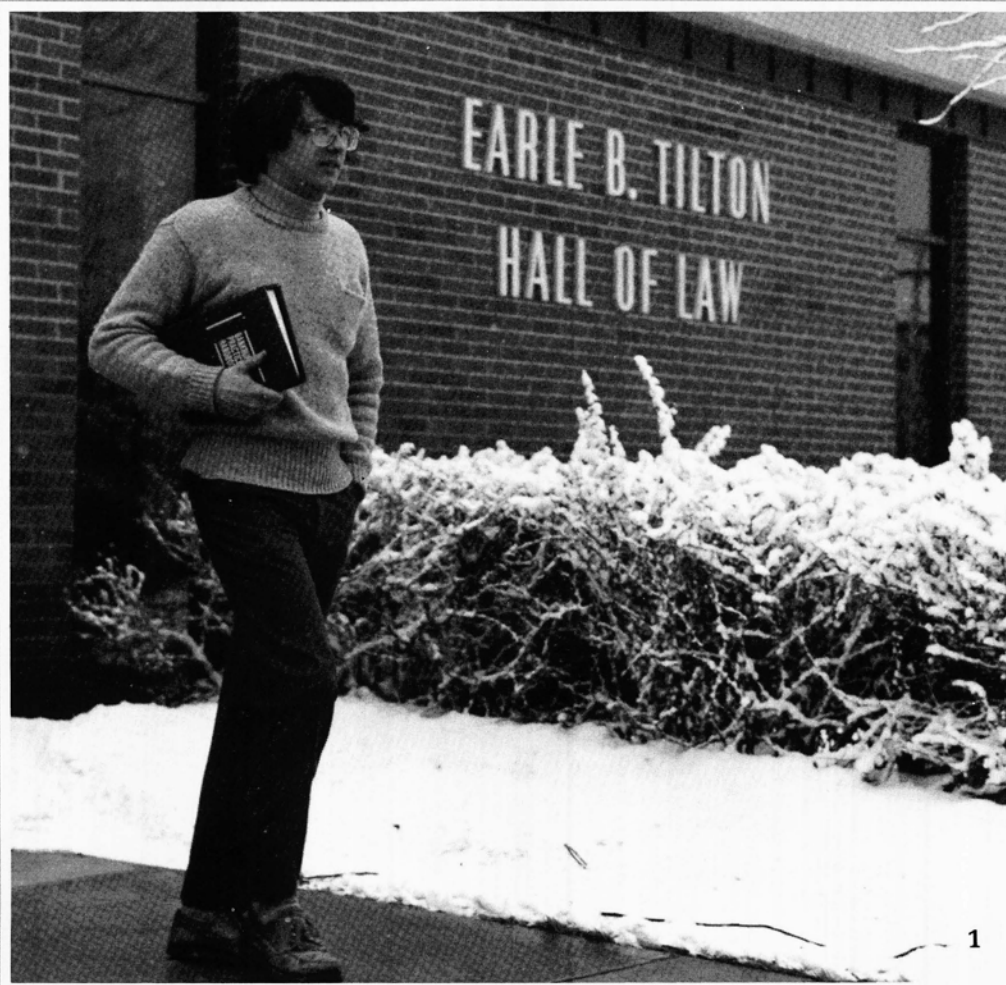

The search for a new law dean ended when Dr. Gaynor VanLandingham was appointed dean of the Pettit College of Law on January 1st. The appointment of the new dean followed a search undertaken after Dean Daniel S. Guy stated his desire to return to full-time teaching upon the appointment of a successor.

Dr. VanLandingham, prior to her appointment, was professor of law at Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. Before that, she served on the law faculty of the University of South Dakota, and practiced in Virginia for several years. She has taught in several areas of law, yet has a special interest in taxation.

VanLandingham graduated from Longwood College, Farmville, Virginia and received her law degree from the University of Richmond. She also holds a master of law degree from Georgetown University.

The Pettit College of Law is proud to have VanLandingham as the new dean.

1. The Pettit College of Law caters to the needs of approximately 500 law students.
2. Lecturing from the podium is Dr. Friedlander.
3. Newly appointed law dean, Dr. Gaynor VanLandingham lectures to a class of law students.

New Courses Offered At Northern

Ohio Northern offered students a good number of choices this year with even a few new programs to their credit.

In association with the American Management Associations-Extension Institute, ONU began a new program offering a Certificate in Management. Designed to provide students with the opportunity to upgrade job related skills, to increase chances for career advancement and broaden competency in business related areas, the program was aimed at men and women already in the business field. Students who completed the program received their certificate in management and Continuing Education Units. An advance certificate in management was also available.

The first course in the program was "What Managers Do," a practical, skills-building program which concentrated on the functions that most often determine success in management. Other courses in the program included "Accounting for Managers," "Communication Skills for Managers," and a "Manager's Guide to Human Behavior."

Northern became affiliated with the American Management Association-Extension Institute in order to provide the business community with the programs that the Institute has to offer. In addition, more than 100 colleges and universities offer AMA Extension Institute courses across the country.

Of practical use to many students was a course in career planning offered by Dr. Wayne Theye, director of counseling. Past courses along these lines had been offered to graduating seniors, however, this year the course was redesigned for all students and especially for freshmen. During the winter quarter course, students reviewed their interests and values through summary papers. They also took math and verbal aptitude tests and then used computers to match their interests, values, and aptitudes to suitable careers.

Also offered by the College of Pharmacy was a new course in basic nutrition. Taught by Dr. L.K. Smith, the course was open to any university student and was taught at a level requiring no science background. Topics for the course included energy, obesity, weight reduction methods, fad diets, and the nutritional quality of packaged food.

Whatever the case, or choice, may be, new and varied programs at ONU provided a change of pace for students who took part in the offerings.

1. Speaking to a group of students during a banquet held for education majors is Dr. Donald Traxler, Chairman of the department.

2. Senior biology major, Deb Copeland, takes part in an internship program with the Cleveland Zoo.

Social Work Receives Accreditation

ONU's social work program received accreditation from the national accrediting board, the Council on Social Work Education, during winter quarter of this year. According to Dr. Kenneth Wildman, chairman of the psychology, sociology, and social work department, accreditation means that ONU social work graduates can now join the national association and may obtain credit in a graduate program in social work. Such credit in a graduate program can mean eliminating nearly a year of some master's degree programs. In addition, in states where licensing is required for social workers, one of the requirements for licensing is a degree from an accredited institution. Northern now has this benefit to offer its social work majors.

Obtaining accreditation was a long project according to Dr. Phillip Kahal, professor of social work. The process involved being in compliance with all of the council's criteria, which include having faculty with no less than a master's degree in social work, and passing a series of standards for the program. Standards set include research in the study of human behavior, the social environment, diverse lifestyles, and women's issues. Social work practice is also required.

After submitting a 75 page self study and a 268 page appendix which took two years of writing, a two member site team visited the university to check out the courses, faculty, and the university's programs in general. The department's competency-based program far exceeded the council's expectations, and the social work program was awarded accreditation.

Accreditation, which lasts for seven years before it must be reviewed, raises the stature of the social work program and will help the university draw students interested in pursuing social work careers.

Pharmacy Celebrates Centennial

Ohio Northern University's Raabe College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences celebrated its 100th birthday this year with a 100th birthday party, the Merck Foundation Lecture series, and Pharmacy Week. Dr. LeRoy Beltz, Dean of the College of Pharmacy said that "we successfully kicked off our centennial year with a birthday party." Organized by the Pharmacy Student Council, over 200 students took part in the birthday celebration and enjoyed the cake and beverages distributed. As a special present to the pharmacy college, the Merck Foundation donated $8,000 to support a series of lectures to be presented throughout the year. In addition, Dean Beltz appeared at alumni meetings throughout the year, and, a committee consisting of the Board of Trustees, pharmacy faculty, and alumni, have initiated a drive for funds for an alumni chair.

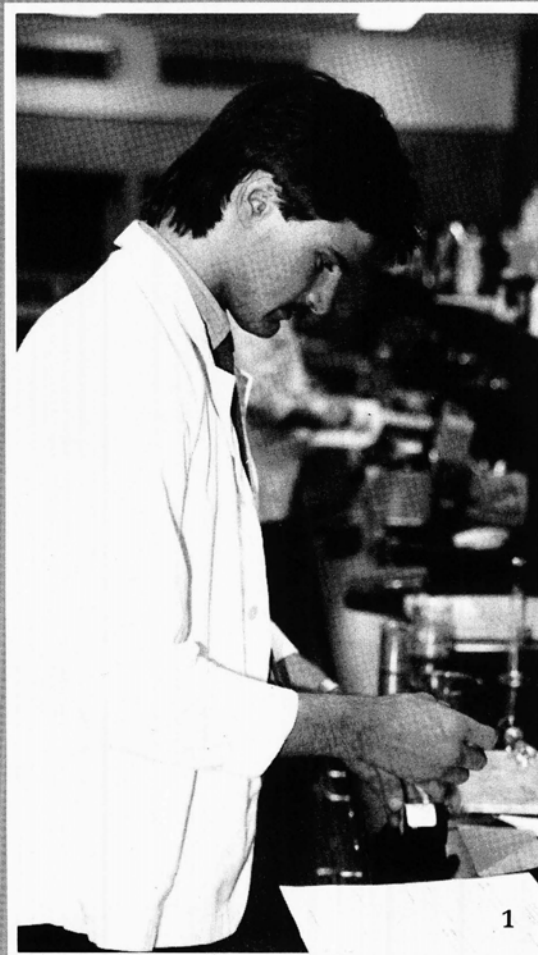

During Pharmacy Week, the centennial was once again recognized. Chapel services featured Dr. Marilyn Harris, a professor of pharmacy at Duquesne University. She spoke upon Project Hope; "Its role in education of Third World countries."

She also presented a slide show on her work with Project Hope and discussed its relevance to the pharmacy field. Other events throughout the week included a drug fair, a student-faculty picnic, Pharmacy Feud, and the Pharmacy Olympics.

Since 1884, over 5,000 students have graduated in pharmacy at Northern. According to Dr. David Stuart, the pharmacy college was formed after legislation was passed in 1883 stating that pharmacists had to have a formal education. Prior to this legislation, experience through an apprenticeship was all that was required. Today, 25% of all pharmacists in Ohio are Ohio Northern graduates.

A Pulitzer Possibility

Dr. Raymond E. Fahrner, Ohio Northern composer and Assistant Professor of Music, may be the next celebrity on campus; his symphony composition Visions and Fantasies, was nominated for the 1984 Pulitzer Prize in musical composition. Dr. Fahrner has been composing on a regular basis for several years, and lately he has been gaining quite a bit of recognition.

Since 1978, Fahrner has written the music for six children's theatre shows, including The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, for which he received a National Endowment for the Arts Composer's fellowship grant. And, in 1981 he wrote a major electric work, Simpatica, which has been performed numerous times throughout the U.S. and Mexico.

Dr. Fahrner, who tries to complete at least one major work each year, had his most recent work, Visions and Fantasies, premiered by the Lima Symphony Orchestra in March of 1984. Commissioned by the Lima Symphony Orchestra in conjunction with the Great Lakes Art Alliance, Fahrner wrote Visions and Fantasies as an expression of many of his life's dreams. He classifies his one piece orchestra movement as "innovative romanticism."

Following the well received premiere performance, Robert Palmer, who has followed Fahrner's career for some time, recommended his composition to the Pulitzer Committee's board of judges for consideration for this year's Pulitzer Prize in Music Composition. This made Fahrner one of 80 nominees for the Pulitzer Prize in the above category.

At Northern, Dr. Fahrner teaches ear training and music theory. He has also started an electronic music studio in which students learn to operate electronic music systems and produce music on the department's new synthesizer. In addition, he directs the New Music Ensemble, a group which performs 20th century compositions.

Whether composing or conducting, Fahrner uses music as his medium of communication with people. He feels that music should serve people by expressing a certain spirit. When composing, he draws from his emotions, his observations of life, and from his sense of humor. He says that "When I'm writing a particular piece, my main goal is not to vent my emotions — I consciously choose the feelings I want to express." In turn, his musical ideas come from a variety of sources. For example, while working on his master's composition in Cincinnati, he heard a window shatter and incorporated into his score a musical translation of the event. Another of his pieces deals with loneliness and features a single trumpet blowing into the strings of a piano for a dramatic feedback effect.

Even though Dr. Fahrner maintains a busy work schedule which includes teaching, composing, directing, and performing, he has proved to be a definite asset to the university and the department of music. Whether Pulitzer Prize recipient or not, Dr. Raymond Fahrner is a winner.

University Computer Facilities Expand

New additions this year to Northern's computer facilities have provided expanded computer capability for faculty and student use. However, the additions are not just geared toward the computer science program, but are to be found throughout various university departments. New this year is a terminal installed for use by the switchboard operator, and ten microcomputers purchased for various departments.

The main computer system on campus consists of the DEC-PDP 11-70 for general computing, the DEC-PDP 11-34 for dynamic graphics, and the DEC-PDP 11-23 for use by advanced science students. This summer, a new computer, DEC-PDP 11-44, was donated to the math and computer science department by the Digital Equipment Company for use in the advanced computer classes. In addition, the DEC-PDP 11-34 is being expanded to a faster processing DEC-PDP 11-44. This computer will be used by engineers and computer science majors, and a new terminal for graphics instruction will be added.

The entire university benefits from the use of the new switchboard terminal. When a room or phone number change is reported in residence life, the information is updated in the main computer. Using the new switchboard terminal, the university operator can obtain the correct information.

In other areas, major computer additions have taken place in eight departments with the purchase of the ten new microcomputers. The microcomputers operate independently of the main frame computer, and enable greater general computer use.

Three IBM personal computers were purchased by the College of Business Administration. These will be used primarily by accounting, economic, and finance classes. And, a fourth unit, an Apple, was purchased for the history and political science department. Dean Clyde Painter says that once all the new computers are operable, five software programs will be available for student use. Eventually, a color graphics unit will be used in the classroom for computer assisted instruction. Faculty research will also be greatly enhanced by the new computer systems.

The music and education department each received an Apple microcomputer. In the music department the system will be used for programmed instruction in music theory classes, ear training exercises, and in conjunction with a synthesizer in composing music. According to Donald Traxler, chairman of the Department of Education, they hope to use their new unit to provide practical experience to education majors. Due to the fact that elementary schools are beginning to incorporate computer training into their curriculum, education majors are being required to know more about computer use. Traxler plans to incorporate computer exercises into class coursework.

In addition, the biology, industrial technology, civil engineering, and math and computer science departments each received a microcomputer. Presently, the biology department is using their new Commodore 64 for word processing, but Dr. Eric Nelson foresees its use in physiology and laboratory classes. According to Nelson, "with a computer, you can replace any piece of laboratory instruments with a whole lot of advantages." He also was "willing to predict that three years from now every other room in the dorm will have a computer." Hopefully, with constant computer expansion, Northern will be able to keep on top of this ever-changing technology.

1. Computers located in the pharmacy college aid students and faculty with in and out of class research.

2. Engineering students have several computer rooms at their access.

3. Not only do computer science majors utilize the university's computer facilities but nearly all departments ranging from business to psychology enjoy the benefits.

ONU Becomes "Center Of Study" For Hemingway And Faulkner

Ohio Northern University will soon become known among scholars as the center of studies and sole publisher of two literary journals devoted to the most written about American authors. According to Dr. Charles M. Oliver, professor of English at ONU, August 1st, 1984 will mark the first issue of the "Faulkner Journal," which will be published here at Northern. Northern is already the publisher of the "Hemingway Review," of which Oliver is the editor.

The "Hemingway Review," is a journal that has been produced at Northern since 1979. Oliver took over publication of the "Hemingway Notes," the forerunner of the "Review" at that time. He printed four issues and then upgraded it to the "Hemingway Review." With a subscription rate of approximately 750, and with the journal being published twice a year, Oliver has been choosing and editing manuscripts and laying out the "Review" since 1979.

Oliver will serve as managing editor for the "Faulkner Journal." James B. Corothers of the University of Kansas and Jack Matthews of Boston University will serve as co-editors, while Tom MaHaney of Georgia Southern University and Noel Polk of the University of Southern Mississippi will serve on the editorial board to review and choose manuscripts for inclusion in the journal. The "Faulkner Journal" will also be published twice annually with Oliver responsible for production and subscription sales.

Oliver, an English professor specializing in Hemingway, feels that the goal of both journals is to provide a much needed outlet for scholars and their research on the two authors. However, he states the "Faulkner" is more popular than Hemingway as far as attracting scholarly interest. Therefore, a larger subscription rate for the "Faulkner Journal" is expected.

Oliver also feels that having both journals located at Ohio Northern is quite a boost for the school; it opens up possibilities for scholarly exchange which might not have occurred. Because of his work with the "Hemingway Review," Northern has had a Hemingway evening. In addition, there is already talk about bringing both Faulkner and Hemingway scholars to Ohio Northern for a joint conference between the two in the future.

Students And Faculty Present Spanish Theatre

On May 8th and 9th the students and faculty of the department of foreign language presented their annual Spanish theatre performance entitled "Spanish Theatre of the 40's: 80's Style." Presented in the Black Box Studio Theatre, the performance consisted of three famous scenes from Spanish plays of the 1940's, along with the modern version of the 1980's. The major presentation of La Dama del Alba (The Lady of the Dawn) followed.

The first scene of the "Spanish Theatre" performance was from La Casa de Bernarda Alba (The House of Bernarda Alba) written by Federico Garcia Lorca. It dealt with the lives of five severely repressed daughters. Scenes two and three were from La Barca Sin Pescador (The Boat Without a Fisherman) by Alejandro Casona. These scenes centered on the life of Ricardo Jordon, who on the verge of losing all his money, accepts the help of the devil. In return, though, Ricardo must wish for the death of a man he doesn't even know. Each of these three scenes were then followed by a modern version written by the department of foreign languages. Afterwards, the modern version of Alejandro Casona's play La Dama del

Alba was performed in which the storyline follows the 4th anniversary of the supposed drowning of Martin's wife, Angelica.

After a successful ONU performance, the cast and crew took part in a two-day Spanish Theatre Festival held at Earlham College. There, they once again performed La Dama del Alba. Dr. Don Davey, director of ONU's players had modified, updated, and shortened Casona's work.

Feeling that the experience would be good for Spanish-speaking performers, planning for the Spanish Theatre Festival began in the spring of last year when Howard Lamson of the Spanish department of Earlham College, contacted Dr. Davey with his idea for a Spanish Theatre Festival. Other schools which participated besides ONU included Ball State University, Earlham, and Kenyon College. Members of the cast who made the Spanish theatre performance a reality were Richie Davey, Brad Fisher, Martha Long, Anne Faisant, Rafael Montanez, Jill Fletcher, Marcia Minnich, Arthur Scott Munson, and Lori Williams.

1. Working with foreign language instructor, Dr. Lippert, is Spanish major Anne Faisant.
2. Spanish professor Dr. William F. Day, works with students during class.

Jazz I Is World's Fair Bound

On September 26th, 1984, ONU's very own Jazz Ensemble I is scheduled to appear at the World's Fair in New Orleans. Chairman and Director of the Music Department and the jazz program, Edwin Williams, feels that this is the most international exposure to date that the university has ever gotten, and that it may serve as very important exposure possibilities for the music department and the entire university.

Involvement with the World's Fair began when the entertainment committee of the World's Fair sent out a bulletin requiring the submission of an audition tape. Acceptance to play at the fair was based upon this taped performance. The Jazz I Ensemble group submitted their tape from the Cleveland Jazz Festival. The ensemble was invited to perform next September and is planning for the upcoming event.

Jazz Ensemble I consists primarily of upperclassmen and some freshmen. Members include trumpet players Eric Francis, Tim Brewer, Janice Wunderlich, Mary Evans, Jo Lynn Evans; saxophone players Heather Minnich, Kandi Jo Benson, Jim Weyrauch, Mary Zigmund, and Bob Barno; trombone and tuba players Steve Chesser, Bob Martin, John Jeurgans, Steve Summers, Randy Crider; and on rhythm Mike Tschanz, Jeff Hogrefe, Jim Warren, Todd Zevchik, and Sarah Smith. Of the twenty members, seven are music majors.

Williams is responsible for all aspects of the trip including budget, transportation, lodging, and music. Fund raisers will be used in order to help defray the costs.

In addition to on-campus performances, the ONU Jazz Ensemble I has performed at Lazarus' Skyview Restaurant and in a concert at Memorial Hall in Lima. The ensemble performs big band music of the 30's, 40's, 50's and 60's, and features the music of Glenn Miller, Benny Goodman, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, and Maynard Ferguson.

Founder's Day Celebrated

Ohio Northern University celebrated 113 years of education this April 5th, with its Founder's Day festivities. The annual event recognizes Dr. Henry Solomon Lehr, Ohio Northern's founder, and the university's relationship with the United Methodist Church. This year, the Raabe College of Pharmacy's centennial was also recognized.

Chapel services for the Founder's Day celebration featured Lynn Anderson, who spoke on the topic of "Remember who said, 'There's no hurry.'" Mr. Anderson is president of Ohio Northern's Alumni Association, and received his bachelor of science in pharmacy from Northern in 1950. Representatives from the college of pharmacy also participated in the chapel services. Dr. Thomas Gossel, professor of pharmacology, delivered a tribute to the founder. And, Dr. LeRoy Beltz, dean of the college of pharmacy also spoke. Later, university President Dr. DeBow Freed hosted a luncheon in McIntosh Center for participants and descendants of Dr. Lehr.

113 years of education at Ohio Northern was something to celebrate during the Founder's Day activities.

Art At Northern

Art does exist at Northern, yet little known to students is the fact that Ohio Northern is home to 54 various works of art displayed throughout most of the university's buildings. These pieces have been purchased through funds provided by the art department, and are a permanent collection of the university. James DeVore, chairman of the art department, personally oversees all of the pieces and has them moved around periodically.

More noticeable on campus, however, were the art works displayed throughout the year in the Elzay Gallery. During fall quarter, the Gallery featured five different exhibits. Starting the year off, was the senior show of Jan Rogensues. The showing was of mixed media art Rogensues created during her college career. A show featuring the work of three fiber artists and one metalsmith jeweler, entitled "Three Dimensions," followed. Alf Ward, Tracy Ruhlin, Susan Kristoferson, and Kathleen Moore Farling were the four artists featured. From October 2nd-28th the Ohio Watercolor Society's Traveling Exhibit brought to campus the works of 47 artists. And, ending the quarter were the shows of Jill Preston Bidwell and Libby Lloyd. Bidwell, a 1982 ONU graduate exhibited her paintings. Lloyd, an Ohio State —

Lima branch art instructor displayed her drawings entitled "Portraits of Women Who Write."

Winter quarter featured a number of exhibits. From November 28th to December 9th, a Liturgical Art Invitational Exhibit presented various media from a number of artists. The traditional art student Christmas sale took place before the holiday, and Lisa Bumbaugh's senior show followed in January. Another senior show, featuring the work of Anita Hayne's occurred towards the end of January. The ever-popular faculty and staff show, featuring art work by ONU non-art faculty and staff, took place February 5th-17th. Ending the quarter were Hanover College art faculty members John Thomas and Jim Shaftstall displaying their paintings and sculpture.

Spring quarter was a little less hectic with only three major exhibits in the Elzay Gallery. The juried student exhibit took place April 1st-18th. And, two senior art shows rounded out the quarter. Tina LaPenta and Beth Grafflin held a joint show April 24th-May 5th, while Mark Spengler's show ended the year. With such a line-up of talent and variety of work exhibited, the Elzay Gallery and the Wilson Art Center brought art to ONU.

1. Enjoying one of the many exhibits in the Elzay Gallery are Stephanie Estes and Cindy Thatcher.
2. The delicate work of forming a pot out of clay is demonstrated on the wheel by the hands of a skilled craftsman.
3. An art student works on a painting during class time.
4. Proud of their joint senior art show are Beth Grafflin, Tina LaPenta, and parents.

ONU Professor Returns To College

As of September, Dr. Obi Ebbe will no longer be a professor of sociology at Ohio Northern, but will instead be sitting on the other side of the desk as he returns to school. Dr. Ebbe was recently awarded a fellowship at Valparaiso University, Indiana. There, he will pursue a law degree.

Asked why he was leaving the teaching profession, Dr. Ebbe replied "I don't regard sociology or criminology as one of the noble professions. I don't want to retire at anytime, and so the only job that will keep me working all my life is law." It has been Dr. Ebbe's life-long ambition to go to law school, and he comes by that honestly, his father was a customary court judge. In addition, according to Ebbe, a law degree will enable him to become actively involved with politics in his home country of Nigeria.

Best wishes Dr. Ebbe. Study hard!

1. The white laboratory rat is a common sight, especially for psychology students and behavior modification labs.

2. Having someone to stroll hand-in-hand through campus with between classes makes "academics" all that easier, especially for Mary Parks and Mike Kauffman.

Brad Starkey is one of the busiest folks on campus. This senior is from Zanesville and is dual major in speech and political science and is also a part of the pre-law program. Academics aside, he is a member of the Arts and Sciences Student Council (President 1983-84), Pi Kappa Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, Kappa Kappa Psi, and Student Senate. He has been a resident assistant and participates in intramurals. His experiences with the debate team climaxed in 1983 with qualification for the National Debate Competition in Colorado.

Brad's interests outside of school include skydiving, music, and hunting. He says he also enjoys traveling, especially to the upper peninsula of Michigan where he can be alone and camp.

He currently fears the United States' escalation of military involvements with our peacekeeping forces in Third World countries. The crisis in Lebanon caused him to move politically from the middle to the side of Ronald Reagan in terms of his foreign policy.

As for the future, he predicts U.S. involvement in a third major war with conventional weaponry. On the brighter side, Brad foresees complete computer infiltration of society.

For seven years, Ohio Northern has been an integral part of Alice Robinson's life. As an undergraduate, she majored in political science, speech and theatre and also minored in history. Then came ONU's law school from which she will graduate in May of 1984.

Alice is from Mechanicsburg, Ohio, and after seven years has a couple of observations about ONU. One is the lack of coverage of the law school in the yearbook. The second is that there is no need for the big separation between the law students and the rest of the campus.

She lists her campus activities as being a member of the Moot Court Executive Board, the fall and spring National Moot Court Teams, Order of the Barristers, and President of the Criminal Law Society. Alice feels that competitions have helped to prepare her for trial work when she must be able to speak in front of judges. In connection with this, she says she would like to be involved in criminal law as an attorney somewhere in Ohio.

Collecting giraffes certainly isn't ordinary, but then, neither is Jody Mancini! She says her herd consists of about 75 members. She began collecting them because of their unusual beauty and uniqueness.

Jody is a graduating pharmacy major who also holds a minor in German. She has been involved in such diverse activities as CAB, Jazz Ensemble, German Club, Son's Rays, Mortar Board, and the Ada Methodist Church choir. She enjoys tutoring in German, composing, performing, listening to jazz and classical music, and running.

She opposes nuclear weapons but supports nuclear energy and the search for better alternatives to fossil fuels. She foresees extended shopping at home, aided by computers, and also a universal language providing faster communication.

Jody has won awards for progress and service in German, but her career lies with pharmacy. Her goal is to be in pharmaceutical sales followed by a district manager position.

Steve Christopher is a graduating law student from Dunkirk, Ohio. Before law school, he attended ONU and obtained a degree in business management. He is involved in many on-campus activities; he is an alumnus of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and is a member of Delta Theta Phi and the American Trial Lawyers Association. He also participates in mock trial and client counseling competitions.

He enjoys history, hunting (whatever happens to be in season), and karate. His interest in the latter arose from his father who has a black belt. He says he's not quite that good since he is only a beginner.

He feels strongly about several issues. One of these issues is the Second Amendment right of citizens to keep and bear arms. Secondly, he believes that conservation of national parks and wildlife refuges is very important to our society. In addition, he dislikes the "left-wing bias" demonstrated by the national news media. As examples of this he cites the way the press is down on Ronald Reagan and its pro-gun control stance. He observes that the press usually takes the liberal side of any controversy. For his future, Steve plans a private law practice after passing the Bar.

One of the many students who travel to Ohio Northern from the state of New York is third year law student Julie Pasquariello. She hails from Lancaster, New York, and completed her undergraduate major in sociology at a state university in Buffalo.

It is difficult to know where to begin discussing Julie's work experiences and activities. She has been employed as a law clerk for the firm of DaPore, Sabol, and DaPore and also as a legal intern with the Juvenile Court Prosecutor in Allen County, Ohio.

Julie is a member of the legal fraternity Phi Alpha Delta, being named Justice for 1983-84. She also holds membership in the Association of Trial Lawyers of America, the student division of the New York State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association, Law Student Division.

She has been active in competitions such as the Eugene Hanson Client Counseling Competition (1983), the Burke E. Smith Mock Trial Competition (1983), and was a semi-finalist in the Association of Trial Lawyers of America 1983 competition.

She has also received recognition upon being named to "Who's Who Among American Law Students" for 1983-84. Congratulations, Julie, and best of luck in your career as an attorney!

The Dining Hall Committee — what is it and what does it do? According to member Ted Horton, the committee is a part of Student Senate and is the students' voice in the food services. The committee tries to find out about the students' problems and concerns and then tries to make any possible changes.

Ted is a civil engineering major with an option in public administration. He is incredibly active. Along with Student Senate, he is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers, Residence Hall Council, and has been a resident assistant in Roberts Hall for two years. He participates in the campus intramurals program and enjoys tennis, softball, racquetball, and bowling. One of his most interesting hobbies is the stock market. He does not have the money to invest quite yet, but for now his main interest is learning pointers.

Ted strongly advocates capital punishment and other severe penalties for crimes. He believes that there are too many people getting off and committing crimes again, and stronger penalties could be a deterrent to crimes.

His prediction for the future? A process to desalinate sea water in an economical manner.

This campus owes a lot to Neil Davis. Why? Because of his involvement with the Campus Activities Board (CAB) which is responsible for much of the university entertainment and events. Neil has been treasurer, secretary, and ultimately, president of this busy organization. CAB is the group that sponsors such events as Casino Night and the movies shown on Sundays. CAB's presentation of all night movies for Halloween and the Family Feud are always big successes.

Neil is a senior majoring in civil engineering. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and participates in men's volleyball intramurals. He enjoys swimming and many outdoor activities.

He feels very strongly about environmental issues and believes protection of our environment is extremely important. He thinks that a dangerous situation involving pollution and shortage of energy lies ahead for the world. Neil would like to do something about these problems and says that to protect the environment, we must control pollution more by leaving catalytic converters on cars and decreasing natural pollution. As for the energy shortage, he says we should drive less, have industries cut down on usage, and finally, use natural energy such as sun and wind.

Mike Margevicius is a P-2 from Cleveland who has found his place in the religious life at ONU. He is a brother of Sigma Theta Epsilon fraternity and is currently the coordinator of the Hour of Higher Power on WONU, the student run campus radio station. As coordinator and disc jockey, it is his job to minister to the needs of those students on campus who want to listen to Contemporary Christian music.

He also puts his technical talents to use during the Artist Film Series events when he acts as the audio-visual technician. In addition to these activities, he enjoys baseball, playing cards, and window shopping.

When asked about issues which concern him, Mike replied that he strongly disagrees with the way this country fails to acknowledge Jesus Christ, and he cited the example of banning school prayer. He believes that there should be some acknowledgement of God in schools whether it be in silent or aloud prayer or in some other form.

Broadway at Ohio Northern — not exactly, but similar according to Steve Oleson when discussing Added Attraction, an on-campus musical company. The members of the group sing and dance and if you've ever seen them perform then you know how talented Steve and associates are.

He is a sophomore mechanical engineering major with a computer science option. Along with being involved with Added Attraction, he is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He enjoys reading science fiction material, singing, dancing, and partying.

Steve admits to being concerned about the current state of affairs between the United States and Russia, and also about the prevention of war. At ONU, he is concerned with the responsibility being placed primarily on fraternities in regards to campus parties. He believes that the university should accept some of the responsibility for drinking by perhaps creating a pub.

Who is the driving force behind the Northern Review? The current editor is Erin Wood, a third year pharmacy major from West Virginia. She has been on the staff for three years, beginning as a writer, and moving on to the position of production manager. Finally, due to her attraction to the challenge of leadership, the editor's job.

Besides the Review, Erin participates in intramurals and the Student American Pharmaceutical Association (SAPhA). In what free time remains, she relaxes by doing needlework, taking walks, or reading.

For the future, she foresees great advances in drug delivery systems, the discovery of cures for many presently fatal diseases and either a nuclear war or complete disarmament by the year 2000. She believes the United States can affect the latter prediction by being sensible during discussions and not always trying to be the best, but rather being fair. A final prediction was a victory for President Reagan in the next election.

Chris Graham — a twin, but definitely still an individual. This freshman pharmacy student is from Norwalk, Ohio, and has gotten involved immediately in campus activities.

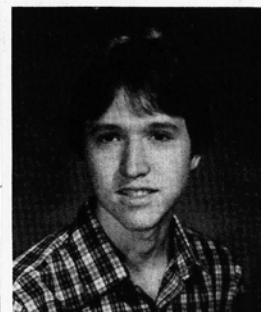

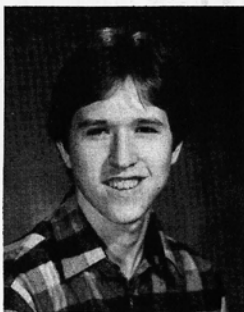

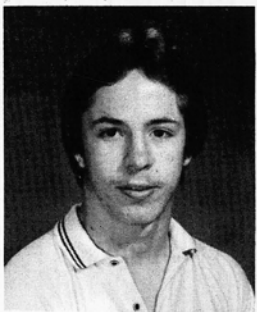

He sings and plays both the trumpet and the piano and has publicly displayed these musical abilities by being a member of the marching and symphonic bands and by performing during the fall quarter Open Mic Night. His athletic abilities fall in the areas of basketball and tennis and he played both basketball and football for Maglott Hall. In addition, he has attained membership in two honorary societies — Kappa Kappa Psi for bandmen and Phi Eta Sigma for male freshmen academic achievers.

For the future, Chris sees the United States having a serious fall economically and also fears the development of clones because of the misuse of technology. He also sees music becoming more technically oriented and believes that jazz will become popular again.

Traveling all the way to snowy Ada from sunny Orlando is second year law student Mark Bender. He majored in criminal justice at the University of Central Florida, and after hearing about Ohio Northern from a friend, decided to give it a try.

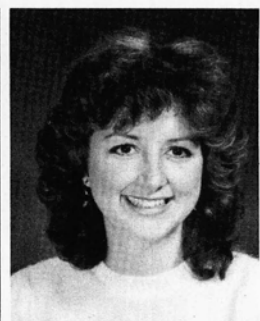

He enjoys such diverse hobbies as skiing, golf, and skydiving. He was attracted to the latter activity by his sense of curiosity and found it to be enjoyable. One of the campus activities that he is involved in is the VITA Program. The letters stand for Volunteer Income Tax Assistance and the program is designed to help the elderly, poor, and anyone else who needs help when filling out their tax forms.

Mark is interested in getting into criminal law, and in relation to this, believes we need to have our criminal and civil justice and court systems restructured. He thinks the process is too slow and allows the criminal too many ways of escaping. He also believes that victims of crime deserve to have more rights.

One person who is really into her major is Jean Marsh, a P-3 from Parma. As proof of her academic achievement, she has been awarded P-1 and P-3 honors in the College of Pharmacy and most recently was chosen to receive the 1984 Bristol Laboratories Award which recognizes outstanding scholarship achievement in the pharmacy curriculum. In addition, she was awarded a ROTC scholarship and beginning in the fall will travel to Bowling Green for required coursework.

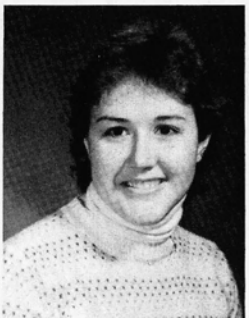

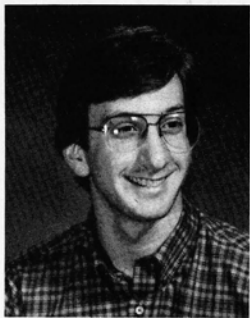

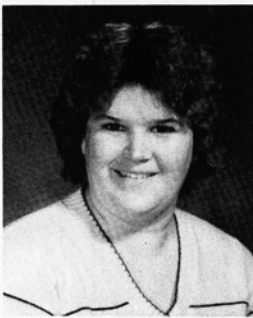

Jean is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, the Northern Review, Phi Lambda Sigma, Alpha Zeta Omega (Corresponding Secretary), and is the president elect of Student APhA.

But don't get the idea that it's all work and no play! She enjoys racquetball, jogging, sleeping (!), partying, and attending pharmaceutical conventions in such awful places as New Orleans and Montreal.

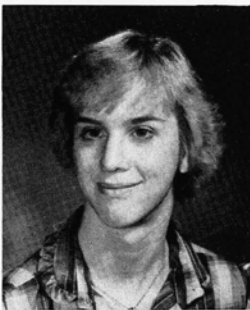

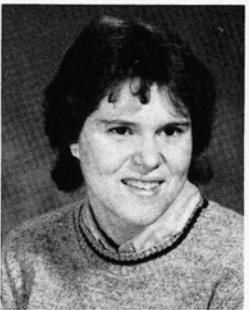

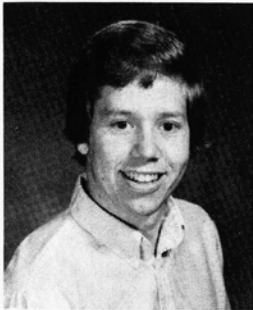

Her prediction for the future is a continuation of the present situation for a long time.

If you're an injured athlete who takes care of you? One possibility is junior Suzy Hudson from Cincinnati. Her major is health and physical education with teacher's certification in grades K-12. She is also involved in the sports medicine, coaching certification, and Spanish programs.

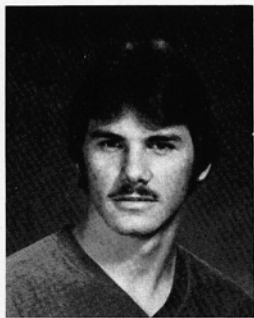

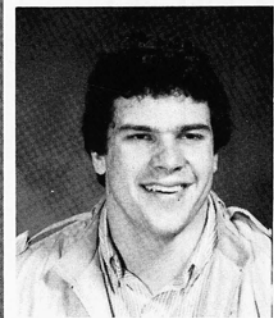

In addition to studying, she somehow finds the time for Phi Epsilon Kappa, OAHPERD, HPEMN, SNEA, RHC, Chapel Choir, Varsity Track, JV Volleyball, Phi Kappa Theta Little Sisses, being a student athletic trainer, Son's Rays, Unlimited Sharing, Our Lady of Lourdes Folk Group, and the Sports Medicine Club. In what little spare time is left over, Suzy enjoys tennis, racquetball, skiing, and photography.

As an important current issue, Suzy feels there needs to be improvement in public school education which can be accomplished by having more quality teachers who are not only dedicated to the students, but care about getting them prepared for life. Suzy hopes to be that kind of a teacher.

Have you ever wanted to found your own action group? That's what Andrew Rawdon did while an undergraduate at Potsdam College in New York. Throughout his life, he has been concerned with environmental issues and while still in high school in the 1970's, he formed an ecology club. When he began to attend college, he discovered that there was no environmental group available on campus. He then formed a group called ENVIRONACT and, much to his credit, the organization is still in existence.

Andrew grew up surrounded by mountains in the Lake Placid area of New York and developed a love of cross-country skiing and mountain climbing. He also enjoys travelling and says he has been to most of the United States.

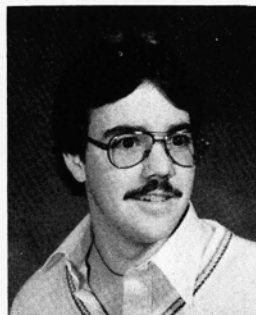

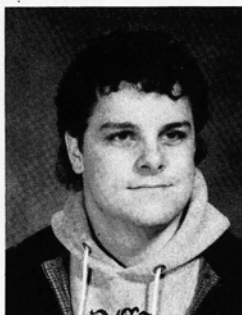

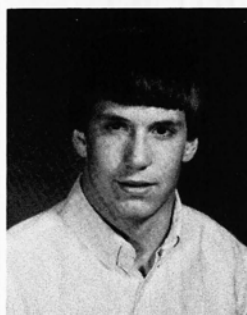

Here at Ohio Northern, he is a first year law student with a goal of being in the field of publishing. After graduating, he would like to write the books that his classmates will read.

World-wide syndication of the Harv and G.B. Show — a future "goal" of George Bilderback, production manager at WONU and one half of the broadcast team. He finds his work at the university's radio station to be interesting and educational and, at the same time, fun.

This sophomore management/finance major also carries an organizational communications minor. He is originally from New Jersey, but now lives in Worthington, a suburb of Columbus. Besides working at WONU, G.B. finds many interesting things to keep himself busy. These include trying to walk against the Ada winds, Park Hall soccer games, road trips to Bowling Green, and Sig Pi parties, which he claims, are the best parties on campus!!

There's a bartender in our midst! And it's junior David Luechauer, a finance major from Cincinnati. He says he got into this interesting hobby out of curiosity. Some friends asked him to help out at a party, and since then he has taken some classes to improve his skills.

When he's not mixing drinks he enjoys golf and politics. On campus, he is involved with the Theta Chi fraternity, Student Senate, the Board of Trustees, Clark Hall Residence Hall Council, and is Business Manager for WONU.

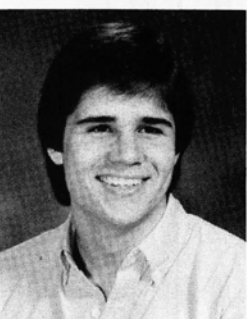

One issue that he feels strongly about is the "non-exciting" campus. He hopes ONU can become the fun and exciting place colleges are supposed to be. He believes this can happen if the credit hours are changed to permit people to take fewer classes in a day which would allow for more campus involvement. Dave also feels that if so many people didn't go home on weekends they would learn to find other things to do here. In terms of the world, he sees a cure for diabetes and hopefully peace and prosperity.

An accounting major graduating in three years — quite a challenge — but one that is being successfully accomplished by junior Mike Morgan. With taking between 19 and 21 credit hours every quarter, it's a wonder that he has time to do anything else!

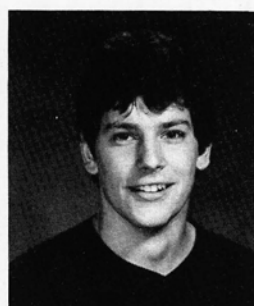

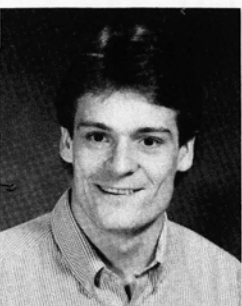

However, he does manage to find time to be very active in music at ONU. He is a member of the Marching, Symphonic, and Pep Bands; Woodwind and New Music Ensembles; the Christmas Festival Orchestra; and is also a member of Kappa Kappa Psi, a men's band honorary. He lists his main interest and hobby as music, which is no surprise considering that he has thus far learned to play all woodwind and all brass instruments.

Mike sees many future developments in the area of space life and travel with extended use of the space shuttle. Should the space station become a successful reality, he says he would enjoy giving life in outer space a try!

The life led by Mike Aruta is a life filled with challenges. One of this third-year pharmacy/pre-med student's feats is the training and showing of horses. This climaxed in 1981 when his horse was barrel champ at the Ohio State Fair. On campus, he is involved in intramural athletics, Kappa Psi pharmaceutical fraternity (Pledge Master 83-84), Park Hall Fight Night, Pharmacy Council (P-3 rep), Student Senate (Greek Housing rep), Phi Lambda Sigma pharmacy society, and he was a Good News Bear for the summer of 1983. Perhaps the biggest challenge presently facing Mike is his undergraduate research work with Dr. Faulkner and Dr. Bricker. They are currently involved with studies concerning drug tolerance.

As for the future, he foresees condos on the moon, nasal contraceptives, and people living to be 225 years old. On the personal side, he has yet another challenge ahead of him. His goal is to attend Ohio State Medical School and be involved in emergency medicine.

Yes,
there were visions.

Visions for 1984 and visions of 1984. Dr. Henry Solomon Lehr had a vision when he founded what was to become Ohio Northern University 113 years ago. And, the Raabe College of Pharmacy celebrated its centennial this year, thanks to the foresight of many. But for us, and for now, what remains are visions of the future.
